MADISONVILLE AND COVINGTON,

THE well known and fast running steam boat CORSAIR, Bagley, master, will leave the railway every Sunday, until further notice, at half past 9 o'clock A. M. and return in the evening of the same day. She will also leave the railway every Wednesday, at half past 9 o'clock A. M. for Madisonville, and return up the river within one mile of Covington, and run down on the following day, (Thursday.) Passengers wishing to go on Sundays should be at the railway for the barge by 9 o'clock A. M.

As a quarter past 8 o'clock A. M.

The boat having been purchased by a company expressly for the Lake trade, will be continued as a regular packet by the Corsair, between Covington, Madisonville, and New Orleans; and persons passage days would be willing to tow sulky or boat, either or spare.

Passage respectfully solicited.

NOTICE.—To those who are desirous to preserve their health. The admirable remedy for all the diseases that assail the stomach by J. B. Montagne, has produced, under critical circumstances, during the late malady, the most satisfactory results; and all persons who have made use of it during that period, are now in excellent health.—It has proved a speedy remedy against those cramps in the stomach, difficult respirations, and weakness of the stomach, for which the apothecaries have prescribed various remedies, which are hardly ever effectual. It may be taken of morning as bitters, directly before breakfast; it will facilitate digestion, and is agreeable to the taste.

The proofs which have already been given of its efficacy, not only in this city, but among the slaves on the plantation of Charles Derbigny, as well as the workmen employed on the canal of Mr. Camille Zeringue, are sufficient to establish its merits.

It would be very easy for the philagre to make this commendation, without recourse to any druggist or apothecary. Those who desire it may learn from the author the ingredients of the elixir, either by subscription or for a reasonable compensation; and they may rest assured that the secret will remain inviolable. They, of course, are expected to preserve it.

J. B. MONTAGNE.

N. B. A subscription list is deposited at Hewlett's Exchange, where the remedy can be tested. dec 17

NOTICE.

A. LAFOUTURIE, Confectioner, and distiller, has the honor of informing his friends and the public that he has opened a superb establishment at No. 91, Levee street, between Bienville and Custom-house streets. The care which he has taken in the selection of the articles that form this establishment; the advantages of its situation; the acquisition of several additional slaves; the correspondence which he established during his recent voyage to France and Havana, will combine to insure a regular and constant supply from a broad of whatever articles are not usually procured at home. He will furnish country merchants and masters of vessels with complete supplies; and will execute every possible care to fill every order that may be sent to him. He will always keep a general assortment of the following articles: cordials of all kinds in cases and in bottles; wines of every quality; an assortment of syrup; orgeat, plumbe, fine and common; Havana confectionery; fruits preserved in brandy; pastry; all kinds bonbons, fine and crystalized; candies, lemon, mint, heurbound, &c. &c. He trusts that the public will continue the encouragement which they have hitherto honored him with. dec 17

THE subscribers have just received and offer for sale, at wholesale and retail, at their store, corner of Chartres and St. Peters streets, the following articles direct from Philadelphia, by the brig Poictiers and other arrivals.—150 boxes sperm oil; 50 cases sweet oil; half do; 50 cases Muscat Wine of Frontignac; 16 do Tunny preserved in oil; 20 kegs Geese do; 100 quarts Samergues; 1 jar do Marseilles; 6 do chrysonelle; 6 bale nuts; almonds of divers qualities; peach and apricot preserves in demijohns; do sugar plumbs; 300 boxes of Provence preserved in oil and butter; half do: an assortment of different kinds of pastry, and stuffed birds; cured Pittsburg quality of excellent cheese; 100 baskets of Rochevasser and other assorted cordials; 200 boxs of raisins de grapes; do half; Bordeaux wine in casks and bottles; 200 jars Marseilles grapes; do half do; vermicelli; macaroni, and all other kinds of groceries.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The new improved Surgical Instrument, for the facility in the extraction of teeth, is now ready for use. Dr. Plough flatters himself to say, that the instrument, for that purpose, at the present period, in the United States of America, can surpass it, for its facility, dexterity, and safety, and a perfect guarantee for the operator. He avails himself of this opportunity to say, that those persons who have the habit of extracting teeth, may now assuredly perform things unattainable with the instruments often destructive to the mouth of the patient, disgraceful to the profession.

EMIGRATION WANTED.—Charles Connor, native of Roscommon, Parish of Ulfin, Ireland—left Liverpool in April last for New Orleans, whence he has been heard from—his wife who is now in this city and desirous to join him immediately. He will leave here on the application at this office. Mr. O'Connor left Ireland in Clare county, Illinois, where he may have gone. dec 24

NEW ORLEANS OMNIBUSSES.

TWO New Carriages, one called 'The Cotton Plant' and the other 'The Tobacco Plant,' have taken the place of the former Omnibusses.—These Carriages were built last summer by the Messrs. Carters of Newark, who have the greatest experience in the construction of Omnibusses, (most of those running in New York having been made by them) and for ease, safety and elegance, are superior to any before in use, uniting all the improvements the makers experience have collected.

They will ply daily at the following stated hours, between the Lower Steam Cotton Press, and Canal street, head of Chartres street, (passing the Rail Road and Exchange Coffee House.) with four horses, under the management of skilful Drivers—the fare is put at the low price of twelve and a half cents, which affords every one an opportunity of travelling by them.—Every reliance may be placed on the punctuality of the Line and the puntuality of starting; it will give a communication between the Lower Faubourg and Canal street, every half hour in the day, and it is confidently hoped that so great a public convenience will meet with the merited support.

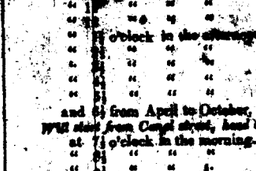
GARSTAIRIAN

SYSTEM OF WRITING.



MR. DOLBEAR, Professor of Penmanship, has returned to New Orleans, & will re-open his writing establishment in this city, on this day 28th inst. at No. 46 Canal street, in the rooms over Miss Carroll's Book Store, where Ladies and Gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens of the rapid improvement of persons from eight to upwards of fifty years of age.

New classes will commence every week during the winter and spring.

A separate apartment for Ladies.

Persons visiting the city for a few days only, can receive a full course of lessons. Ladies are instructed in a neat, rapid and fashionable style of writing, by a method which obviates, entirely, the fatigue of writing; and Gentlemen in a style, bold and rapid. Hours of attendance for Ladies: one class from 10 to 11 1-2 A. M. another from 1 to 2 1-2 P. M. The remainder of the day and evening until 10 P. M. will be devoted to the instruction of Gentlemen.

Mr. D. expects his brother, from their establishment at the North, this week, when they will be prepared to give private lessons and execute all kinds of ornamental writing in a superior style, &c.

CERTIFICATES.

From His Excellency Governor Roman.

I have examined, with attention, the system of writing taught by Mr. Dolbear, and it is with pleasure that I can certify to its superiority over any other method, with which I am acquainted.—Mr. Dolbear having given private lessons in my family, I consider it but justice to add, that I believe him as much worthy of public patronage on account of the correctness and mildness of his character, as on account of the rapid improvement of those who received his lessons.

New Orleans, July 24, 1832. A. B. ROMAN.

On the invitation of Mr. Dolbear, a Teacher of Penmanship, in our city, upon the Garstairian system, we have carefully examined specimens of the writing of his pupils, whose ages range from 8 to 50 years, written through an entire course of instruction; and after having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction, that we can testify to the rapid if not unparalleled, progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a concurrent opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. It to unite legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste, be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of the system that it is to be acquired. We therefore cordially solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an Instructor, whose qualifications merit the highest order, and whose labors promise to be so eminently useful to this and other communities.

A. B. Roman, Governor of the State of Louisiana; P. Prieur, Mayor of the City of New Orleans; Rev. C. Maistrant; Rev. O. L. Nash; A. Grailhe, Esq; Rev. G. Winston; J. W. Egnew, Esq; Wm C. Pope, Esq; D. Murphey, Esq; L. Bringier, Surveyor General. dec 29

YOUNG LADIES,

CONDUCTED BY

MDE. & MLLE. GARNET;

Mr. Landreaux's house, Royal st. corner of St. Philip st.

TERMS.

THE course of studies lasts ten months from the first of November till the first of September every year.—☞ The establishment, this year, opens on the 24th of December.

A general examination, followed by a public distribution of prizes, closes the course of studies and the establishment is shut up from the first of September to the first of November, a period during which the prevailing diseases induce most of the parents to retire to the country.

The course of studies comprises the complete and simultaneous teaching of the French and English languages and literature, writing, arithmetic, geography, chronology, history, astronomy, and the different sorts of needlework, fancy-making, tapestry, and fancy works.

Boarders for the course of studies of ten months,	$300
Day Scholars, do.	80
Half Scholars, do.	100
Washing and mending of the linen,	30

USEFUL ARTS.

Harp, per quarter,	30
Piano, do.	20
Solfeing singing, do.	20
Drawing,	20
Painting,	20

Beds and bedding complete are found by the establishment, for which the pupils have to pay once for all.....5

Each pupil is to bring twelve towels, a silver spoon, fork and goblet, a dessert knife and a sufficient suit of clothes and linen.

Spiritual books and writing books are also found by the establishment, and paid for separately.

Payments to be made every three months and in advance. No deduction for the holidays or absence.

Madame Granet will make it a rule to avoid extra bills as much as possible, and will charge nothing but what she has actually laid out.

In opening such an establishment, Madame Granet is well aware that she can, as yet, have no claim herself to the confidence of the inhabitants of New Orleans; being totally a stranger in the city, she must entirely depend upon the kind recommendation of those parents of whom she is known; and among whom she is proud to mention the names of

His Excellency, A. B. Roman, Governor of Louisiana.
Mr. and Mrs. Maurreau,
Mr. and Mrs. Holland,
Mr. and Mrs. West,
Mr. and Mrs. Pilié,
Mr. and Mrs. Boyer,
Messrs. J. F. Canonge, Edmond Forstall, Wm. Nott, Theodore Nicolet, J. Garnier, Quartier & Bostin.

Madame Granet has been a long time at the head of a similar institution in Paris; and having since passed seven years in London, she has acquired a complete knowledge of the systems of education in both countries.

Madame Granet is assisted by her two daughters, the eldest of whom, a pupil of the best masters in France and England, teaches the Piano, singing and drawing.

French and English literature will be taught by competent professors, who have successfully practised in London and in Paris.

A physician will be attached to the establishment.

Religion, the foundation of every good education, will be carefully attended to. One day in the week will be consecrated to religious instruction by a proper person, and the pupils will be taken to church every Sunday, when the weather permits it.

Madame Granet engages to devote herself entirely to the care and superintendence of her establishment; to consider her pupils as her own children, to give them food both substantial and wholesome, a solid and moral education. In a word, she will never lose sight of her liberties, but most honorable undertaking, and will endeavor to deserve in every way the confidence and esteem of parents.

SALES AT AUCTION.

STEAM SAW MILL FOR SALE

BY ISAAC L. McCOY.

THE proprietor being about to remove to his place on the other side of the river, will offer for sale on Saturday, the 5th day of January next, at the Exchange coffee house, the lease of a portion of ground situated on the batture, fauxbourg Livaudais, together with the steam saw mill, and all the other improvements thereon. The mill is in excellent running order, having underwent a thorough repair within the last four months, that cost the proprietor upwards of twelve hundred dollars. The machinery is nearly all made anew; the old boilers have been taken out and large ones put in their stead, which afford an abundance of steam. There is also a good dwelling house built of cypress, having four apartments, and is so calculated as to be removed, in parts without injury. The purchaser shall have a right of removing every thing off the premises at the expiration of his lease, that is the mill, machinery, houses, &c. There is space enough to contain upwards of two hundred cords of wood, without interfering with the convenience of the saw mill, and a well known mill place for steam boats to wood at, and should the place be occupied, in part, as a wood yard, with a little alteration, a circular saw could be attached to the saw mill, to cross cut the logs before split up into cord wood, which alone would be a saving of two thirds the common expenses. The lease continues for five years from the first of August last, at the monthly rent of twenty one dollars, payable quarterly. The stock of cypress on hand can be had by the purchaser at a fair value.

Terms of sale—The purchaser to assume three notes as follows—one due on the 3d of February 1833, for $351 21; one on the 3d of May, for $351 25; and one on the 3d of August for $351 25; the remainder of the purchase money at twelve months credit; for notes drawn and endorsed to the satisfaction of the vender. Act of sale to be passed before W. Y. Lewis, notary public, at the expense of the purchaser. dec 29

BY ISAAC L. McCOY.

ON Thursday, the 17th January next, at 12 o'clock, at the exchange coffee house, will be sold, by virtue of an order from the honorable the court of probate, the following property, belonging to the estate of the late Mrs. Sarah Mitchell, consisting of Three valuable brick buildings situated in Custom-house street, between Dorsier and Chartres streets, viz: House No. 17, is a good two story brick building, divided into a store below, and a dwelling house with 6 rooms above, at present occupied by Doctor Perlee, under a lease which expires on the 15th November next, at the rate of $65 per month. House No. 19, adjoining No. 17, and is a new three story brick store, under a lease until the 15 November next, at $90 per month. House No. 21, adjoins No. 19, and is also a new three story brick store, under a lease until the 15th November next, at $95 per month. All of said buildings are composed of the best materials, and finished in the best workmanship manner, and occupy a lot of ground measuring 60 feet front by 80 feet in depth, their situation is central, and offers many advantages to capitalists who may wish to make a judicious and profitable investment. The houses will be sold together or in one block.

Terms—One and two years credit, for approved endorsed paper, secured by mortgage until final payment. The notes to be drawn in sums to suit the testamentary executors.

Acts of sale to be passed before G. R. Stringer, esq. a notary public, at the expense of the purchaser. dec 17
