Why it is that some of the papers who profess adherence to the democratic party, suffer their columns to be occupied by a man who has been convicted as a criminal for the support of a rebellion. One of the papers, the Commercial Advertiser, of New York, has published an article in its issue of the 19th inst., in which it has been stated that the office in the Union, would have secured to him the confidence of those who profess to adhere to its cause. This was not willing to yield to his individual sports. But, in the case of a man who has been convicted as a criminal for the support of a rebellion, it is not willing to yield to his individual sports.
