NOTICE.—To those who are desirous to preserve their health. The admirable remedy for all the diseases that assail the stomach, by J. B. Montagne, has produced, under the trial circumstances, during the late malady, the most satisfactory results; and all persons who have made use of it during that period, are now in excellent health.—It has proved a speedy remedy against those cramps in the stomach, difficult respirations, and weakness of the stomach, for which the apothecaries have prescribed various remedies, which are hardly ever effectual. It may be taken at morning as bitters, directly before breakfast; it will facilitate digestion, and is agreeable to the taste.

The passes which have already been given of its efficacy, evidently in this city, but among the slaves on the plantation of Charles Derbigny, as well as the workmen employed on the canal of Mr. Camille Zeringue, are sufficient to establish its merits.

It would be very easy for the planters to make this composition, without recourse to any druggist or apothecary. Those who desire it may learn from the author the ingredients of the recipe, either by subscription or for a reasonable compensation; and they may rest assured that the secret will remain inviolable. They, of course, are expected to preserve it.

J. B. MONTAGNE.

N. B. A subscription list is deposited at Hewlett's Exchange, where the remedy can be tested. dec 17.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The new improved Surgical Turnkey, for the facility in the extraction of teeth, is now ready for use. Dr. Flagg flatters himself to say, that four instruments, for that purpose, at the present period, in Europe or America, can surpass it, for its facility, dexterity neatness, and a perfect guarantee for the operator. He avails himself of this opportunity to say, that those persons who are in possession of extracting teeth, may now deservedly avoid the disagreeable consequences which so often deserve the profession.

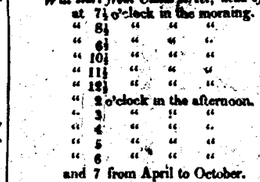
CARSTAIRIAN

SYSTEM OF WRITING.



MR. DOLBEAR, Professor of Penmanship, has returned to New Orleans, & will re-open his writing establishment in this city, on this day 29th inst. at No. 48 Canal street, in the rooms over Miss Carroll's Book Store, where Ladies and Gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens of the rapid improvement of persons from eight to upwards of fifty years of age.

New classes will commence every week during the winter and spring. A separate apartment for Ladies.

Persons visiting the city for a few days only, can receive a full course of lessons. Ladies are instructed in a neat, rapid and fashionable style of writing, by a method which obviates, entirely, the fatigue of writing; and Gentlemen in a style, bold and rapid. Hours of attendance for Ladies; one class from 10 to 11 1-2 A. M. another from 1 to 2 1-2 P. M. The remainder of the day and evening until 10 P. M. will be devoted to the instruction of Gentlemen.

Mr. D. expects his brother, from their establishment at the North, this week, when they will be prepared to give private lessons and execute all kinds of ornamental writing in a superior style, &c.

CERTIFICATES.

From his Excellency Governor Roman.

I have examined with attention, the system of writing taught by Mr. Dolbear, and it is with pleasure that I can certify to its superiority over any other method, with which I am acquainted. Mr. Dolbear having given private lessons in my family, I consider it but justice to add, that I believe him as much worthy of public patronage on account of the correctness and mildness of his character, as on account of the rapid improvement of those who received his lessons.

New Orleans, July 2d, 1832. A. B. ROMAN.

On the invitation of Mr. Dolbear, a Teacher of Penmanship, in our city, upon the Carstairian system; we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages range from 5 to 50 years, written through an entire course of instruction; and after having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction, that we can testify to the rapid if not unparalleled, progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a concurrent opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste, be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of the system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an instructor, whose qualifications for the highest order, and whose labors promise to be so exceedingly useful to this and other communities.

A. B. Roman, Governor of the State of Louisiana; D. Prieur, Mayor of the City of New Orleans; Rev. C. Maenhout; Rev. O. L. Nash; A. Grailhe, Esq; Rev. G. Winslow; J. W. Egnew, Esq; Wm C. Pope, Esq; D. Merphey, Esq; L. Bringier, Surveyor General.

Madame Granet will make it a rule to avoid extra bills as much as possible, and will charge nothing but what she has actually laid out.

In opening such an establishment, Madame Granet is well aware that she can, as yet, have no claim herself to the confidence of the inhabitants of New Orleans; being totally a stranger in the city, she must entirely depend upon the kind recommendation of those persons of whom she is known, and among whom she is proud to mention the names of

His Excellency, A. B. Roman, Governor of Louisiana,
Mr. and Mrs. Masureau,
Mr. and Mrs. Holland,

Madame Granet is assisted by her two daughters, the eldest of whom, a pupil of the best masters in France and England, teaches the Piano, singing and drawing.

French and English literature will be taught by competent professors, who have successfully practiced in London and in Paris.

A physician will be attached to the establishment.

Religion, the foundation of every good education, will be carefully attended to. One day in the week will be consecrated to religious instruction by a proper person, and the pupils will be taken to church every Sunday, when the weather permits it.

Madame Granet engages to devote herself entirely to the care and superintendance of her establishment; to consider her pupils as her own children, to give them food both substantial and wholesome, a solid and moral education. In a word, she will never lose sight of her laborious, but most honorable undertaking, and will endeavor to deserve in every way the confidence and esteem of parents.

STEAM SAW MILL FOR SALE

BY ISAAC L. McCOY.

THE proprietor being about to remove to his place on the other side of the river, will offer for sale on Saturday, the 5th day of January next, at the Exchange coffee house, the lease of a portion of ground situated on the batture, faubourg Livaudais, together with the steam saw mill, and all the other improvements thereon. The mill is in excellent running order, having undergone a thorough repair within the last four months, that cost the proprietor upwards of twelve hundred dollars. The machinery is nearly all made anew; the old boilers have been taken out and large ones put in their stead, which afford an abundance of steam. There is also a good dwelling house built of cypress, having four apartments, and is so calculated as to be removed, in parts without injury. The purchaser shall have a right of removing every thing off the premises at the expiration of his lease; that is the mill, machinery, houses, &c. There is space enough to contain upwards of two hundred cords of wood, without interfering with the convenience of the saw mill, and a well known safe place for steam boats to wood at, and should the place be occupied, in part, as a wood yard, with a little alteration, a circular saw could be attached to the saw mill, to cross cut the logs before split up into cord wood, which along would be a saving of two thirds the common expenses. The lease continues for two years from the first of August last, at the monthly rent of twenty one dollars, payable quarterly. The stock of cypress on hand can be had by the purchaser at a fair value.

Terms of sale—The purchaser to assume three notes as follows—one due on the 3d of February 1833, for $391 21; one on the 3d of May, for $391 25; and one on the 3d of August for $381 25; the remainder of the purchase money at twelve months credit; for notes drawn and endorsed to the satisfaction of the vender. Act of sale to be passed before W. Y. Lewis, notary public, at the expense of the purchaser. dec 29.
