At the sitting of the city council on Wednesday even At the sitting of the city council on Westnesday evening, that part of the ordinance of February, 1889, which directs he weakly sale of merchandize encumbering the leves was repealed, and is its stead an ordinance was passed imposing a penalty of from one to two hundred dollars, in all cases where goods are left to encountered at leves, and another in the ordinance was passed in the ordinance was passed in didnts to succeed indeed blim to the governor as a candidate of the ordinance was passed in the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate of the ordinance was passed in the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate of the ordinance was passed in the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate of the ordinance was passed in the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate of the ordinance was passed in the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate of the ordinance was passed in the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate of the ordinance was passed in the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate or the ordinance was passed in the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate or the ordinance was passed in the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate or the ordinance was passed in the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate or the ordinance was passed in the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate or the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate or the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate or the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate or the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate or the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate or the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate or the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate or the friends having proposed him to the governor as a candidate or the friend

The reason of the repeal of that section of the ordinance' alluded to, is, its having been decided, by the supreme court, to have been unconstitutional. At the same time that the corporation thus magnanimously retraced its steps, it ought, in common justice, to have increased the componation of the city attorney, who, it is easy to foresee, will have a fine field of litigation before him. This is not the only instance in which the city council has been caught tugging at the stone of Systemus, to the no small cost of their constituents; nor is it likely to be the last.

112d our contemporary been attentive to pussing events, it might have known that Tampico papers up to the 28th uit, were received here on Monday last, announcing, on the authority of the Registro Oficial, of Mexico, of the 18th, the resignation of Alaman, Facio, and Espinosa, the ministers of state, finance and justice. Calderon, the minister of war, who commands the army that fled so precipitately from Vera Cruz, alone remains; and he will doubtless follow the example set by his colleages, the moment it comes to his knowledge. Instead of Santa Anna being "assembling all his forces to march on Mexico," it is known that he left Vera Cruz on the 18th, with a well appointed army of about 4000 strong, and that his advanced post, at the latest advices, was at Jova, three leagues from Jaiapa. Every probability warrants that ere now he is in Mexico. So far as we are able to understand the views of Sinta Anna, as developed in his proclamations, at the time of raising the sindard of revelt at Vera Cross, he neither seeks nor desires a change in "the political features of the government" of his country. He only demanded the retirement of the present ministry, and that the administration of the public affairs should be entrusted to others, who would he more regardful of the true interests and the constitution of the republic. Had this demand been acceded to, the blood that has flowed so profusely, would have been spared, and all the disseters that have attended the ministalialists. would have been averted. But since Santa Ange and his wise have been deemed rebellion, that they will permit Bustainante, who has been cause of all these ills, to retain his usurped and constantly abused power. A general convention is already spoken of, to consider of the important questions that will necessary arise in the interval between the election and assembling of the new congress, in Apri next. Santa Anna and his cause have been much aspersed in this community, by interested partizans of Bustamante; and we have felt it to be a duty which we owe to a distinguished patriot and gallant soldier, to disabuse the public mind in this respect. To this end, we shall avail ourselves of the earliest moment of leisure, to present a succifit view

The New York papers furnish intelligence of a new retransfer to our columns, from the Evening Past. There seems to be but little chance that the bill rechartering the United States bank will pass the senate, upon the estimate of the correspondent of the Journal of Commerce, which we copy, who is a friend of that institution. The senators from Mississippi and Missouri, whom he sets down as "uncertain" are very certain, in our mind, to vote against the bill. The two from Indiana, and one from Ohio, are the bill. The apithy which is complained of by the Lafourche Gasette, in regard to the approaching election of members of the legislature, is not confined to that district of the state. With the exception of the candidates themselves, and their immediate friends and partizans, a most culpable indifference prevails among the citizens of this parish, as to the selection of their law makers. The propriety of a town meeting being held, for the formation of a ticket, at which the deveral candidates should express their views of the revision of the constitution, of the necessity of a new system of education, and of a general plan of internal improvements, of education, and or a general pear of internal proprovements, in the sales already been suggested. Such as assembles would be a tendence to a sale the public mind to the inners. have a tendency to awaken the public mind to the importauce of the various subjects that are likely to occupy the next legislatura; it would afford the candidates an opportu-nity degreenting their claims upon the suffrages of the electors, as well the latter the means of making a judicious selection from among the numerous candidates for public favor. We trust such a meeting may be held.

The Courier du Teche, of St. Martinsville, contains the annexed extract of a letter from the honorable H. A. Bullard, relative to his competitor for a seet in congress. What a severe repress of the course pursued by that paper towards Mr. Mouton!

PROCLAMATION. PROLLAMATION.
Until within a few months past I had for a long time con 'esconded to horer about the upper part of the city and fautourg St. Mary, where I had from time to time dispensed my bountsous blessings with an unsparing hand—indeed I was so 'much pleased to wittess the noisy bustle of enterprise, the railing of drays, the mud, dust, cotton begs, bacon, &c. &c., that I had seriously thought of remaining permanently there, or at least of leaving an agent. But I must confess that the old slur sheerings; 5 bales stripes; 60 do, brown Russia sheet the rail road and the manusch cotton press, both of the rail road and the manusch cotton press, both of mes; 18 do, blescheddo, entitled to debenture, for sale which had been constructed in the faubourg Marigny, and put in operation by the magic touch of a few of my improvenents; with all of which I was highly gratified, and determined on selecting a proper person to be located in that neighborhood to act for me and in my name, but under certain restrictions, that is to say, for the sole purpose of vending the lucky numbers in lotteries. I have found such a person, his office is at No. 11, St. Philip street, and his name is Friton.
