...the other, is certainly about to advertise (probably we are writing in saying about) upon the plan of electing suggested, and since presented by the leaders of his party, the principal editor of the Intelligencer, that the people here are not sufficiently acquainted with the merits and demerits of the candidates to form a just estimate of their relative merits, and to vote accordingly. We have no doubt, therefore, that the plan of electing suggested,
and since presented by the leaders of his party, is a very excellent one, and that the people will be very much benefited by it. We have no doubt, therefore, that the plan of electing suggested, and since presented by the leaders of his party, is a very excellent one, and that the people will be very much benefited by it.

...back from the first, the only source of the present prosperity of the State is the cotton trade. The cotton trade is the only source of the present prosperity of the State. The cotton trade is the only source of the present prosperity of the State. The cotton trade is the only source of the present prosperity of the State.

ONE DAY LATER FROM FRANCE.
The Argon, which has just arrived from Paris, has brought us the following news:
The French Government has decided to send a mission to the United States to investigate the claims of the French Republic.
The mission will consist of a number of highly distinguished persons, and will be headed by General Drouot.

THE EDITOR OF THE NEW ORLEANS FREE PRESS.
I have just received from your issue of the 10th inst. a copy of your issue of the 10th inst., and am glad to see that you have given a fair and impartial account of the proceedings of the Convention.

THE NEW YORK STANDARD.
The New York Standard has just published an account of the proceedings of the Convention, and it is very interesting to see how the Standard has represented the proceedings.
