BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.—An antidote to my cholerick potion, said to be compounded according to my recipe and to be very efficient against the cholera, has been selling, for several days past, at H. Bonnefoi's pharmacy, Tchoupitoulous st. Thanking the gentleman for the encomium past on my recipe, I deem it my duty, to inform the public that his potion is a counterfeit; because my recipe could not have been communicated to him by any one; because there is a wide difference in the taste, colour, and specific gravity of my liquor and his potion; because he must vainly have attempted an imitation of my recipe, through the assistance of analysis, on account of the amalgamation of several substances, which chemistry could decompose; and because, if his potion were the same as mine, he would, by no means, dispose of it at the rate of 4 or 6 dollars for the large bottles, and 2 or 3 dollars for the small ones.

The only Kyelskyvoda, which I have constantly used, with the greatest success, and which has saved the lives of hundreds in this city, is manufactured by me, No. 129, Bourbon street, near St. Louis, and is to be had at my lodgings and at the office of the Bee only. The bottles are stamped with my seal, on the cork, and has my signature at the bottom of the directions, stating the use of the potion as a preventive; as to its use as a remedy, it is to be found in several papers; and those who may apply at my lodgings will receive verbal information on the subject.

The public have a right to this explanation; and I make it, in order not to be visited with this censure, should evil effects arise from the use of a counterfeit medicine, sold undr the current of my name.
