LAKE HOTEL,

(Situate at lake end of the new Shell road.)

This splendid establishment, having been completed and thoroughly furnished with every comfort and convenience, will be opened this day for the accommodation of customers.

The situation of the "Lake Hotel" is too well known to the public of New Orleans, as a pleasant and delightful retreat, to require any comment or description. The ride along the banks of the new canal is also known to be the most agreeable that can be found in the vicinity of the city, either in carriages or on horseback.

Attached to the hotel are several fine stables, with good and faithful ostlers, for the accommodation of horses, &c.

The bar is well supplied with choice liquors, and there will always be on hand a full stock of the most superior wines, of all varieties. Gentlemen, therefore, wanting accommodations either in the eating or drinking line, can have every wish supplied at the shortest possible notice, as the proprietor intends keeping his establishment furnished with every variety of fish, and the best the market will afford.

Gentlemen wishing private dinners and suppers, are informed that they will at all times be attended to with the greatest punctuality.

Arrangements are being made to have the bathing-house soon occupied, both by ladies and gentlemen. And it is the intention of the proprietor to spare no trouble to make his house the most desirable resort for the summer afternoons and evenings that can be found anywhere about New Orleans.

TO CONTRACTORS FOR PAVING.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be addressed to the recorder and council of the third municipality, marked "Proposals to Pave," will be received until the 15th of July, 1839, for furnishing all the materials, and making the side-walks required by the council, according to the following specifications, viz. Sixty feet in the bonds of the municipality, at ten years, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, viz:

The curb stones to be employed shall not be less than three and a half feet in length, four inches thick and of the width which shall be deemed necessary according to the level required, and which shall be determined by the inspector of public works, and shall be dressed at the ends, and at the exterior and superior side, and on the edge; the pitch stones shall be of the best quality, and shall be dressed in the most flourishing manner, and the quality superior to that of any the pilasters imported from the North, having the advantage of being freshly made without a particle of lime. The price will also be lower. These reasons embolden the Leucina Cordial to claim an indubitable credit for the gloss, and for the flour albus, obstructed, difficult, or painful menstruation; also for the incontinence of urine, or the involuntary discharge thereof. It is likewise an invaluable and unrivalled medicine in cases of obstinate eruptions of the skin, and in the dropsical affections of the aged.

COUNTERFEIT—The public is respectfully informed that one of the basest and most dangerous counterfeits ever attempted has lately been brought to light in the city of New York; we mean an imitation of that most deservedly popular medicine known "Rowand's Tonic Mixture," for fever and ague.

We had but just put down an imitation called "Rowand's Tonic Mixture," by L. S. Comstock & Co., when another, still more dangerous, makes its appearance from the store of "Seaman & Hoagland," No. 105 Water street, N. Y., in which the fac simile of the proprietor has been counterfeited—his copy-rights infringed upon—his certificates copied—and, in fact, imitated in such a manner, that from its outward appearance, it would be undetected. We would say, we say, that we have commenced a suit, in the United States court, for damages for this "piracy," upon our rights, and request dealers to be very careful of whom they purchase the genuine, as we are certain can be directly traced to the proprietor, or some one of his general agents, whom he has endeavored to select, as men enjoying the utmost respect and confidence of the community in which they reside, and who, we trust, would blush to offer any other than the true and original "Rowand's Tonic Mixture," for the paltry gain of a few dollars, thereby endangering the lives of their fellow citizens.

HUMAN HAIR—"It is certainly true, although not generally understood, that the roots of the hair always remain in the most abundant profusion, and that there not only exist more roots in the skin of every individual than have ever grown from them, but in the worst cases of baldness, that they neither perish nor are destroyed; and unless by accident or disease there should be complete derangement, or destruction of the parts surrounding the roots, it is almost a certainty that they (the roots) continue vigorous, and are not destroyed, or even injured, when the hair has fallen, from fevers, or from constitutional causes, either in the old or young."—(Extract from S. I. Beals & co treatise accompanying Beals' hair restorative.

MESSRS. I. I. BEALS & Co. invite those who are bald (in any degree) or who are losing their hair, to come to their Office, 164 Broadway, up stairs, and have their hair Restorative applied without charge until the hair is restored.

They also offer to enter into a contract with any person desirous of the hair under the penalty of a forfeit of two to five hundred dollars, and party being bound in a like sum, to be paid when the hair ceases to have been restored.

The annexed certificates of gentlemen of the highest standing in the city, may be seen at the office 164 Broadway, showing most forcibly that Beals' Hair Restorative has restored and will restore the human hair, if these are not sufficient to satisfy the incredulous of whom there are a great many on account of the numerous humbugs that have been impudently palmed upon the community, a public demonstration will be given to those who may call there.

The ladies are respectfully recommended to the use of Beals' Hair Restorative, as it is certainly infallible in producing an abundance of new hair where it has become thin, and in preserving and beautifying that which remains.

Beals' Hair Restorative will keep it in excellent condition, and prove a full head of hair in health and beauty to the latest period of life. Price $1 per jar. A liberal discount to those who buy to sell.

HUMAN HAIR—"It is certainly true, although not generally understood, that the roots of the hair always remain in the most abundant profusion, and that there not only exist more roots in the skin of every individual than have ever grown from them, but in the worst cases of baldness, that they neither perish nor are destroyed; and unless by accident or disease there should be complete derangement, or destruction of the parts surrounding the roots, it is almost a certainty that they (the roots) continue vigorous, and are not destroyed, or even injured, when the hair has fallen, from fevers, or from constitutional causes, either in the old or young."—(Extract from S. I. Beals & co treatise accompanying Beals' hair restorative.

MESSRS. I. I. BEALS & Co. invite those who are bald (in any degree) or who are losing their hair, to come to their Office, 164 Broadway, up stairs, and have their hair Restorative applied without charge until the hair is restored.

They also offer to enter into a contract with any person desirous of the hair under the penalty of a forfeit of two to five hundred dollars, and party being bound in a like sum, to be paid when the hair ceases to have been restored.

The annexed certificates of gentlemen of the highest standing in the city, may be seen at the office 164 Broadway, showing most forcibly that Beals' Hair Restorative has restored and will restore the human hair, if these are not sufficient to satisfy the incredulous of whom there are a great many on account of the numerous humbugs that have been impudently palmed upon the community, a public demonstration will be given to those who may call there.

The ladies are respectfully recommended to the use of Beals' Hair Restorative, as it is certainly infallible in producing an abundance of new hair where it has become thin, and in preserving and beautifying that which remains.

Beals' Hair Restorative will keep it in excellent condition, and prove a full head of hair in health and beauty to the latest period of life. Price $1 per jar. A liberal discount to those who buy to sell.
