About 4 weeks those, a well dressed, good looking lad of about 17 years of ago, presented himself at the counter of the United States Branch Bank in the city, with a letter perporting to be written by the Rev. Gardner Spring of the were efficient two checks, jurporting to be signed by S. & M. Allen, one for one thousand dollars, the other for five thousand dollars; with a polite request that the cashier would send him the money. The Messrs, All ms being Treasurers of the Missionary Fund, the Cashier instantly paid the checks, supposing the affair related as some object connected with the missionary business, and wrote a note to Dr. Spring, espressing his pleasure of paying the checks according to his request, &c.

The boy disappeared with the booty, and nothing farther was thought of the transaction until last Thursday, when the Messrs. Allens received a note from the Bank, stating that their account had been overdrawn. Mr. Alten quickly occurred, as he had then a b lance according to his account, of more than $6,000 in Bank. The checks were produced, when the forgery was discovered. I believe as clubas yet been had of the offender. Journal of Commerce.

The peculiar effects of this singular composed upon the animal system was first anglest by the celestical English chemist, Sir Humphrey Davey. He obsersy that when inhaled into the lusage, it produces the my astronishing effocts upon the nervice system; that pay individuals were disposed to lunch, any and clause; offer to fectation and declamation; and that the genter arbor had an irresistible propers ty to inuscular exerting fich as wreating, hossensations produced by it are whily pleasurable, and are not followed by debitiv.

Dr. C. being a practical crimis, no fears need be entertained of inhaling an impa Gaz; as he is withing to submit his preparations to the original of any scientific gen-
