BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL, for young ladies, conducted by Madame Granet, on Mr. Lanthoeny's new house, Royal street, corner of St. Philip street. Terms—Boarders, for ten months, $300, day boarders, do. $100, day scholars, do $100, washing, do. (optional) $20, harp, per quarter, $30, piano, do. $15, drawing, do. $15, dancing, do. $21. The course of studies comprises a simultaneous teaching of the French and English languages, and literature, writing, drawing, arithmetic, geography, chronology, history, and the different sorts of needle work, lace making, tapestry and fancy works. Beds are found by the establishment, for which the pupils have to pay $5. Each pupil is to bring 2 pair of sheets, 1 woollen blanket, 1 white quilt, 12 towels, a silver spoon, fork and goblet, a dessert knife, and a sufficient suit of clothes and linen. School books and writing books are paid for separately. Payments to be made every three months, and in advance, either in cash or in negotiable bills. No deduction for absence. The children are treated with that mildness, so becoming towards the female portion of society, and as Madame Granet carefully avoids striking their young minds with real or imaginary terrors, so she has made a rule never to inflict the least bodily punishment. The increasing success of the establishment and the remarkable progress which the pupils have already made, render it useless to enter into further particulars. a 18

NEW YORK LYCEUM

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF
MR. CHARLES COUDERT,
At Greenwich, 8th Avenue, near the North River, and two miles from the City of New York.

IN this establishment founded in 1826, by CH. COUDERT, are combined the two other French Schools, one recently conducted by Messrs. Peudret, the other by General Lallemand; it is conducted on the principles which have heretofore been approved in those institutions.

The English, French and Spanish languages will be taught as parts of a general education, by professors giving instruction in their native tongue, and the pupils will be practised constantly in speaking and writing the languages.

[illegible] competent professors, to those who may desire such instruction; and these pupils will be made to aid themselves in the acquisition of the modern languages, by a comparison with the ancient, so rich in their literature, and so closely connected with the modern, of which they are the sources.

The course of study to be pursued in the Lyceum, will be more or less extensive, according to the time the pupils may intend to devote to it, and the abilities they may display. The Principal does not profess or expect that every scholar will leave the institution with a complete and accomplished education; but, at least, he hopes in all cases to cultivate and improve the mind, and lay a sure and solid foundation for further acquirements. Neither care nor expense will be spared to accomplish these objects. The principles of Grammar, Logic, Intellectual and Moral Philosophy, History, the pure Mathematics, Astronomy; Botany, Geology, Mineralogy, Chemistry, Political Economy, Book-keeping and commercial operations in general, will form a part of the usual elementary course; while those who wish to pursue any particular branch more fully and carefully, will have every facility for so doing. Lastly, the attention of the pupils will be particularly directed to the literature of the nations whose language they may study, and the Principal hopes in time to be enabled to form a class competent to follow with pleasure and profit a course of polite literature or Belles Lettres.

Reasoning will be the principle of the discipline as well as of the instructions of the institution; and no corporal punishment will be inflicted.

TERMS.

Boarding, Washing; Reading, Writing; English, French and Spanish Languages; a complete course of Mathematics and Linear Drawing, Geography, History, General Grammar, Natural History, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Mineralogy, Physiology and Book-keeping. CARSTAIRIAN SYSTEM OF WRITING.

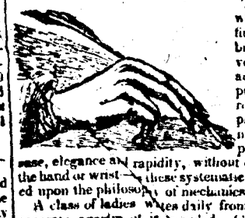
MESSRS. T. P. & R. DOLBEAR, respectfully invites the citizens of New Orleans to call at their writing establishment, No. 48, Canal street, (over Miss Carroll's book store) and examine numerous specimens, executed by ladies and gentlemen who are receiving their instruction, as well as those who have completed their lessons.



The movements of the whole arm, fore arm and fingers, with their combinations, which are given by this system, are adapted to the various purposes of the counting room and parlor; and it properly acquired, will never fail to enable any person to write with ease, elegance and rapidity, without cramping, or pairing the hand or wrist—these systematic movements are founded upon the philosophy of mechanics.

A class of ladies writes daily from 12 to 1, for whom a separate apartment is provided. Gentlemen's apartment open from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. Private lessons given as usual. Ornamental writing, &c. &c. executed with elegance. Persons visiting the city for a few days only, can receive a full course of lessons. Persons attending this institution are not restricted to a given number of lessons, but all are desired to acquire an elegant hand before they leave, whether it require ten or thirty lessons. m 7

CERTIFICATES.

From his Excellency Governor Roman.

I have examined, with attention, the system of writing taught by Mr. Dolbear, and it is with pleasure that I can certify to its superiority over any other method, with which I am acquainted. Mr. Dolbear having given private lessons in my family, I consider it but justice to add, that I believe him as much worthy of public patronage on account of the correctness and neatness of his character, as on account of the rapid improvement of those who received his lessons.

New Orleans, July 2d, 1832. A. B. ROMAN.

On the invitation of Mr. Dolbear, a Teacher of Penmanship, in our city, upon the Carstairian system; we have with the highest satisfaction, that it can justly be [illegible] paid if not unparalleled, progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a consentaneous opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto in taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste, be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of the system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an Instructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be so exceedingly useful to this and other communities.

A. B. Roman, Governor of the State of Louisiana; D. Prieur, Mayor of the City of New Orleans; Rev. C. Maenhaut; Rev. O. L. Nash, A. Grailhe, Esq; Rev. G. Winslow; J. W. Egnew, Esq; Wm C. Pope, Esq; D. Morphey, Esq; L. Bringier, Surveyor General. dec 20

From an examination of the system, according to which Mr. Dolbear instructs and from personal observation of the proficiency of many of his pupils, I feel the utmost confidence in recommending him as the ablest teacher of the art of penmanship, with whom I have ever met. His deportment, also, is that of a gentleman.
