Fellow citizens, if the law requires this as a condition in completing the eligibility of a candidate for the place of Mayor, judge if respect for public manners and morals, does not more imperiously exact that it should be found in a candidate for the office of Governor.

We are requested to ann since E. A. CANON, esq. as a saitable person to all the place of recorder, at the ap-proaching election.

We call the attention of speculators to the sale of a plantation about two miles from the city, with upwards of forty slaves, advertised by Messre, Tricon & Canonge, to take to day at 12 o clock, at the New Etchange. The ndrantages of such a location for lots must be obvious, as it is not improbable that Espianade street will Before long become a place of much importance if, in fact, it does not me the contre point of the city.

THREE CANDIDATES,-A RECORDER. The election of a Recorder is one of those even a that passes by unbested without attracting scarcely a moment's tion; and out of the total number of electors we dare say withstanding however the too common supposition, that officer has more to de with the real interests of the city then say other belonging to the municipality, with the exception of the Mayor. It ought, therefore, to be a matter of public concern who should be selected, and reterr should not evidence such spathy as to the result.

Three candidates are before the public; and if one exam Three candidates are before the public; and if one examines into the past course pursued by them, in the public against the laws of society, and unprecedented offences employments with which they have been invested, it will against reason and common sense. The observation is casily enough be perceived what opinions they entertain with regard to city affairs, and what himses they have for sectional parts. It should be the major point with all to elect a man whose capacity and thients should not be tarnished and ebsoured by little petty private considerations. Some have partially traced it to an immoderate use of

If, taking these principles for our guide, we examine the three candidates one after the other we will find—

Ist. That Mr. Christy is perfectly sectional in his apinions, and that he would doubtless use, if elected, the indicates of his affice to benefit a section; even should it be at the expense of the other parts. We can all remember his constant opposition, when a member in the Council, to every thing tending to ameliorate and improve the central part, and how he manered to defeat every ordinance with such as object. In short, with a full desire to do justice to the talents and capacity of Mr. Christy, we dony that the matural impulses and roppensities of human nature, permitted to run riot, without britished or full out the foundation of much of the inquisitions of whisky or champagne—by intemperate indulgence of animal passions or intellectual anxieties—may be act down as the ordinary and chief stimule on all the abuses and vices, whereof the good people of this naughty are are prone to complain.

The fear that he might not always hold the ballance equally between adverse interests would prevent his fellow entitients from voting in his favor.

3d. Lastly Mr. Canon. We tear nothing in saying that this gentieman's character and talents render him fit to " with dignity and honor any public employment that might be conferred upon him. His independence and the loftiness of his views put him beyond even the bare snapicion of partialities. If the firmness with which he defends hi opini. z and the rights of his fellow-citizens have deprived him of a certain influence, yet he retains notwithstanding the public esteem. His talents and his love of public good are too generally appreciated in this community to require our feeble tribute.
