The Northern Mail of yesterday brings the regular date. The N. Y. papers put us in possession of advices four days from England.

The ship Mars is in the river from Liverpool, whence she sailed on the 4th. Her letter bag was received at two last a hour last evening to be opened by her consignee.

The St. Francisville Phoenix, of the 21st inst., says: "We are glad to announce the loss, by fire, of the steamer Capitaine. She was burnt near the mouth of the river, and we are informed that between 20 and 30 souls perished in the flames."

The improvement and development of natural resources cannot be attended with an increase of the average country, as well as the power and productivity of the country.

The representatives of a great nation has been degraded in Carthage by a people that believe themselves worthy of liberty, and yet do not know how to be just.

The Journal of Commerce of Friday, contains the following: "We have received Gibraltar papers to September 10th, inclusive. An order was issued on the 4th, directing that all vessels arriving from the port of place, Spain, between Gibraltar and the frontier of Portugal, excepting Cuba, Ceuta, and Algiers, should be obliged to quit the port of arrival and anchorage ground of Gibraltar, that they should be subject to the jurisdiction of the Spanish authorities."

MURDER.—A most horrible murder was committed in West County, Del. on Friday night, Nov. 7, 1893. A young man, about 19 years of age, named the perpetrator, George Donnell, had returned home in the evening, and found one of the younger children crying, and saying that he had been corrected by the older daughter, about 10 years of age. The girl was lying on the floor, and the perpetrator, George Donnell, had returned home in the evening, and found one of the younger children crying, and saying that he had been corrected by the older daughter, about 10 years of age.
