THE BEE.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED DAILY BY JEROME BAYON.
STATE PRINTER.
THE UNION — IT MUST BE PRESERVED.

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 1, 1834.

FOR GOVERNOR.

J. B. DAWSON.

Things to be remembered at the Polls.

Remember, that Edward D. White voted in favor of a law, calculated to bring distress and ruin upon a great flourishing interest of our State.

Remember, that we sent him to Congress to advocate our rights, and to represent our wants.

Remember, that he sold the one and mocked at the other.

REMEMBER, that John B. Dawson was raised among us—that we have grown up together, from the age of infancy to an independent State—that he never deceived the confidence of his fellow citizens—in short, that he has ever been respected as a gentleman, loved as a man, and honored as a judge.

SECOND SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

B. MARIGNY.

For Congress:—1st District, CH. GAYARRE,
" 2d " JAMES BRADFORD,
" 3d " J. WALKER.

The several letter mails came to hand late last evening. Our New-York papers are to the 15th. We find nothing of particular interest in them.

The opposition party in New-York had acquiesced in the legality of Mr. Lawrence's election as mayor. A committee of arrangements of the democratic party had been appointed for the reception of the mayor elect.

We have nothing of particular interest from Washington. Mr. Taney, the secretary of the treasury, had submitted to the senate a report of the fiscal arrangements made with the state banks as depositories of the public moneys.

Mr. Thorne, a celebrated actor, appears this evening for a benefit. His bill of fare is attractive, and we hope the public will not withhold their patronage.

The Mercantile, as has been demonstrated, we hope to its entire satisfaction, need not have been under the slightest apprehension that its declaration in favor of Mr. White would have any influence on the elections of this state. For our shares we feel gratified that it has espoused the cause, and had we been invited by the Whitestone, we could have ordered something ourselves for the purpose, convinced as we are, that we could not have hoisted a more worthy sista of our own Line. We do not know whether the Mercantile is to be considered as one of the outside Lines, or not, but if not, we consider that it has not only a right, but is bound in duty to its patrons, to take a decided stand in the present contest. It is not to be considered neutral, when the interests of the whole community are at stake. It is not to be considered neutral, when the interests of the whole community are at stake. It is not to be considered neutral, when the interests of the whole community are at stake