PARISH COURT for the Parish and City of New Orleans.—I hereby certify, that on the 17th April, 1834, judgment was entered in this court in the suit of Celeste Lavigne, wife of Z Smith, vs G S Allicher, husband, in the words and figures following, to wit.—No 7369—Celeste Lavigne, wife of George Smith, vs George Shall her husband. Plaintiff's case was this day submitted to the court on the record, and the court being satisfied from the evidence in the case that the defendant is insolvent, and that the wife the plaintiff may be able to earn by her personal industry, would be better benefited if so ordered, adjudged and decreed, that a separation of property be pronounced between the parties, and that the plaintiff be allowed all the rights and privileges allowed by law to females so separated in necessary from their husbands; and further that the defendant pay the costs of suit

[Signed] CHARLES MAURIAN, judge.

New Orleans, 24th April, 1834.

Judgment recorded in Judgement Docket C, page 56—Costs of Court $19 50.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the said Court, at the City of New Orleans, on this 1st day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and in the 58th year of the Independence of the United States.

BY HEWLETT & BRIGHT.

WILL be sold, on Monday the 12th May, on the premises, the stock in trade of Messrs. Salter Gaillard & Co. consisting of every thing necessary for a Shipcarpenter's establishment on a large scale. The premises and establishment, generally, are so well known, that particular description is not necessary. Suffice it to say, that the sale will be made without reserve, and to close the concern.

Terms—for all sums under $100, cash, over $100 and under $200, sixty days; over 200 and under 400, four months; and upwards of 400, six months credit, for notes endorsed to the satisfaction of the vendors.

Also—at the same time and place, the lease of the Lot of Ground occupied as a ship yard, as above mentioned, together with the dwellings, shops, ways for hauling up steam boats and other vessels, and all the appurtenances thereunto belonging, known as Salter Gaillard & Co's upper yard. The said lease will expire on the 1st day of March, 1839, and includes a lot of 25 ft front on the public road, by 60 feet deep, leased to Mr. John Hughes for $75 per annum. Also, another lot of same dimensions, leased to Mr. John Price for same sum, both up to 1st March, 1839—the whole to be sold in block subject to said leases.

Terms—4 and 6 months credit, for approved endorsed notes and mortgage. The act of sale to be passed at the expense of the purchaser. apr 28

STATE OF LOUISIANA.

PARISH COURT for the Parish and City of New Orleans.—Thereby certify, that on the 8th of April 1834, judgement was entered in this court in the suit of Madame Auvray vs her husband, in the words and figures following, viz:—No 7310—Mad Auvray vs her husband.—The court being called upon to confirm the judgment by default rendered in this case, considering:

1. That the plaintiff has proved by testimony, that the affairs of her husband are in such a situation as to create a reasonable apprehension that her rights be endangered.

2. That by her marriage contract, executed before Louis T Cairo, Esq, notary public of the city of New Orleans, on the 11th day of February 1832, she brought an amount of three thousand dollars.

3. That by the 2339th act of the civil code, an action is given to the wife to secure her rights whenever they are endangered.

It is ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the plaintiff be separated of property from her said husband the defendant, and that she recover from said defendant the sum of three thousand dollars and costs. May 3d, 1834.

[Signed] CHARLES MAURIAN, judge.

Judgment recorded in Judgment Docket C, Page 87.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the said court, at the City of New Orleans, on this 5th day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and in the 58th year of the Independence of the United States.

ARMAND PITOT, Clerk.
