SECOND SENATORML DISTRICT: R. MARIGNY. For Congress:—lat District, CH. GAYARRIE, 2d " JAMES BRADFORD, 3d " J. WALKER.

The mail of yesterday brought as our regular dates. The rumour that the President had sent a message to Con grees on the subject of our French relations, has assumed a more definite shape. It is said, that he proposes countervaling fitties, and the recall of our minister as the proper course to enforce our claims. We see not one word in the Washington papers countenancing the rumor, and although s seems plausible, we cannot from the fact of their silence, out much confidence in it

The two houses of Congress were doing but little. Th prospect of their speedy adjournment seems to gather addi-nal strength from the evident favor with which Mr. Boon's resolution, fixing a day early in June for the purpose, was received on its being called up for further discussion It was currently reported that Mr. Speaker Stevenson would be nominated Minister to England, and that his nomi : ation would be confirmed.

The Bank Committee returned to Washington on the 13th ast. We may expect their report in a day or two.

It by "Internal Improvement," as the term is employed by the Louisiana Advertiser, is meant the prosperity, advancement, and epareous destinies of Louisians, then the charge is a poor shallow fabrication—meredible, inconsistent, and impossible, as can easily be demonstrated.

UNITED STATES SENATE.

In former days this body of men was esteemed, and considered by the whole nation, $\phi$ by foreigners, the most dignified deliberative assembly in the world. The language of its inembers was marked by courtesy and obsteness, and there is a state, is to suppose an impossibility—monstrous, incapitable, and ridiculsus. The degree of consequence—the power and glory of a refer of a State, must in a great degree depend upon the walth and solitical importance of that State.
