The friends of John B. Dawson, in pursuance of previous notice, met last Saturday evening at Davis's ball room. The meeting was organized by calling J.-B. Labatut to the chair, and appointing Modeste Laschvre, David C. Ker, and John II. Helland vice-presidents, and Hughes Pedesclaux, G ntanat and Alonzo Morphy secretaries. Bernard Mangny having been called upon, addressed th meeting in an animated speech, delivered in his usual felicitious and effective manner. Messrs. Soule and Hennen ale re ponded to the calls of their fellow-citizons and spoke with great effect. We are unable to give at present the speeches of Mesers. Marigny and Soule. Mr. Hennea sald in sub stance that he regarded it as a duty to make known his opinions upon the important contest for the guternatorial chair. It should, he observed, be regarded as an indispensable requisite that the person selected to fill that high field respeciable station, should possess firmness, talent and singleness of purpose, and be zealously devoted to the interest We should have a man who has invariably a istained the principles approved by the people against all cosmon and under all circumstances. The Helvatre of Porentroy has the following of the 10th instant from Bernet. For several days past alexaming reports have been current in many parts of Switzerland, and shore particularly in the canten of Berne, of a conspiracy to overthrow all the Constitutional Governments, and every institution founded since the revolution of July. Lucerde is said to be one of the principal contres of this reaction, and, in consequence, the Government has redoubled its vigilance and all the patrouc committees have spontaneously resolved said to be one of the principal of the consequence, the Government has redoubled its vignance and all the patriotic committees have spontaneously resolved to form the the constitution. According to some, considerable sums have been sent from Basle to aid a second edition of the attempt of Abyberg. Lucerne being once in the power of the digarchial party, movements will be attempted at Basle and Berne, where several of the Bernese patribians, who are said to bear some military character, have gone. The moment is considered favorable as a part of the country is still under the said notes and effects of the foreign states. However to bear some the suppled notes and effects of the country is still uncerthe stupled notes and effects of the foreign states. However this may be, the Executive Council of this canton has thought it prudent to take precautions, which some persons and even some members of the military department consider as ill-timed. On the 8th, two companies of infantry entered Berne, with their drums beating. Two battalions are employed as picket guards. The deputation from Zurich has left Berne perfectly satisfied with the success of its mission, and we may confidence sub-ists between Zurich and Ec.ne. It is generally agreed that M. de Rumigny merits the highest praise for his conduct under several recent cursumstances."

Several of the Swiss papers complain badly of a note dated April 9, addressed by the Russian Minister in Switzerland to the Federal Directory at Zurich, as an attack upon the beerty and independence of that country.
