Supplement to the Bee.

SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 7, 1835.

State of Louisiana.

IN THE FOURTH LEGISLATURE, AT ITS SESSION.

JOURNAL

OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Thursday, Jan. 29, 1835.

The House met agreeably to adjournment.

On motion, ordered, that the following resolutions be taken up for consideration:

Resolved, That the committee on [illegible] be appointed to examine into the condition of the [illegible] asylum and report thereon.

A message was received from the Senate, by Mr. Davis, their secretary, informing the House that the Senate had passed the following bills, to which they request the concurrence of this House:

An act to incorporate Charles and Sophronia [illegible] and

An act to incorporate a body politic under the name of [illegible] College of Louisiana.

Resolved, That [illegible] has a right at all times to superintend the officers [illegible] while in the discharge of their official duties, to examine into the fidelity and ability with which these duties have been fulfilled, and to demand a statement of the causes which may have prevented or retarded the progress of business, the execution of which may have been entrusted to its officers.

Be it further resolved, That the resolution offered by the member from St. Mary, on the [illegible] day of this month, calling Mr. Jerome Bayon, State Printer, to state the reasons which had prevented the immediate printing of bills, reports, and other documents, ordered to be printed, was proper in itself, and contained no complaint against that officer, but was intended only to put the House in possession of the causes which had produced the delay, and enabling it to afford an adequate remedy.

Be it further enacted, That Mr. Jerome Bayon's complaints upon that resolution as set forth in the Bee, of the 28th, were improper and disrespectful towards the House, and ought, therefore, to be censured. They were disrespectful towards this House, because coming from one of its officers, and containing an attack against one of its members, for having asked, in a respectful manner, information which that officer is obliged at all times to furnish.

The first resolution having been adopted,

Mr. Haile moved to refer the two last resolutions to a special committee, composed of three members, with instructions to investigate the matter.

Mr. Ogden called for the yeas and nays, when it appeared that Messrs. Bickham, Couvillon, Daniel, Davidson, Haile, Lawson, Penn and Winn had voted in the affirmative—9 yeas:

And that Messrs. Armand, Augustin, Braux, Brazeale, Briggs, Bry, Delachaise, Dixon, Dosson, Ant. Ducros, P. A. Ducros, Labatut, Landry, Lavergne, Lewis, McCallister, Milligan, Montegut, Nerault, Ogden, Ory, Patin, Rousell, Sheldon, Sibley, Sparks, H. C. Thibodeaux, had voted in the negative—27 nays.

Said motion was consequently rejected.

On motion, the House proceeded to the
