PROCLAMATION.

BY A. B. ROMAN,

Governor of the State of Louisiana.

WHEREAS, by the resignation of Edward D. White, a vacancy has been created in the office of Representative in the Congress of the United States, of the First Congressional District of the State of Louisiana, for the twenty third Congress, composed of the counties of Orleans, German coast, Acadian, Lafourche, and whereas it is the duty of the Governor to cause an election to be held to fill said vacancy,

I therefore issue this my Proclamation, directing an election to be held throughout said District on Monday, the 11th day of August next, and on the two following days, notifying the electors thereof of the election aforesaid, and commanding all parish judges, sheriffs and other officers therein concerned, to hold said election, on the days aforesaid, at the several places of holding elections, within their respective counties, parishes and precincts, and to cause the same to be conducted and due returns thereof to be made, in the manner and within the time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand and the seal of the State at New Orleans on this 15th day of July, 1834, and in the year of the Independence of the United States, the fifty-ninth.

By the Governor, A. B. ROMAN.

GEORGE EUSTIS Sec. of State.

STATE OF LOUISIANA

PARISH COURT for the Parish and city of New-Orleans—Present the Honorable Charles Maurin, judge. I hereby certify, that on July 2d, 1834, judgment was entered in this court in the suit of Louise Mathie wife of Charles de Armas vs. Charles de Armas her husband, in the words and figures following, to wit:—No 7529—Louise Mathie wife of Charles de Armas vs. Charles de Armas her husband.

On motion of M'Connell, Esq. of counsel for plaintiff praying for the confirmation of the judgment by default herein entered on the 31st day of June last past—after hearing testimony and examining the documents on file the court being satisfied that the affairs of the defendant are in disorder, as to endanger the plaintiff's rights and interests, has ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the community of goods between the two parties be dissolved, and that a judgment of separation of property be pronounced between them in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant.

The Court being also satisfied that a sum of three thousand dollars coming to Plaintiff from the succession of John W. Scott her first husband, has been received by the defendant, it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the plaintiff recover from the defendant, her husband, by privilege as granted by law, the sum of three thousand dollars, with costs, reserving to said plaintiff all her rights and claims against the parties owing the property belonging to her or to the said defendant, and which was acquired by her said husband, during the said marriage.

New Orleans July 17, 1834.
