THE UNION-TE MUST DE PERSENED. VEDNESDAY MORNING, BEFT. 8, 1834.

I We have carefully made not our men or day's paper. It will be seen that the of fifty-th 's arrived at Liverpool from the 6th to the Lith July, aixine were from New Orleans.

A very respectable meeting was held lest evening wis's hall some in pursuance of previous understandg, with a view to adopt measures to decrease the numr of duels. It is proposed to establish a "Court of 'mor," with suc' ather regulations and bye-laws as may mince to the beneficial object in view. Several proponons were made and referred to a committee containing e and Til populations, but as they are under addisoment e decline referring to them more particularly at this moent. Meers. Bernard Marigny and Gen. Plauche preded over the deliberations of the meeting, assisted by Jerars. Auguste Douce and J. J. Mercier. The committee appointed upon the occasion take their report next blouday, when we thall speak more tlarge of the design. LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM ENGLAND .- By the north gas mail of yesterday, we are in the possession of Siondon tes to the 15th and Liverpool to the 17th July, containing anticularly England. In order to give the details at adopted by the government against the cholera.

It is stated in one of these journals that a person commissioned surface articles; and to content ourselves with a missioned by Don Carlos had arrived at Bayonne, with very interesting and important intelligence from Europe, ore first pulselied.

Grant distress prevailed in Thories and Tippetary, and of a sepatation of 7,000, in the former place, it is ascertained, that so fewer than 2,000 are in absolute want of all that see

MORDAY, FULL 14FM.

In the morning sitting the Mouse was principally occupied in receiving petitions. In the aftenoon aiting the Speaker took the char shortly after five o'clock, at which time the House was crowded in every part.

Lord Alracop then roce amidat the greatest anxiety, and said, he had to move that the House should adjourn till Thursday next. "I have to state, said his lordship, "that lord Molbourne has received his Majerty's commends to lay before him the plan of an administration. That being the case, I should hope the house to adjourn during the former days, would also induce it to adjourn till Thursday, by which time the plan of the administration will be in a state to be laid before the house."

The Speaker then put the question that the house do adjourn till Thursday next, which was seconded and agreed to.
