ADVERTISING SHEET
OF THE New-Orleans Bee.

VOL. I. NEW-ORLEANS, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1834. NO. 8.

Succession of the late Jos. Barthine.

ALL persons having claims against said succession, will please present them duly authenticated for settlement to the undersigned, the executors, and all those who are indebted to the deceased, will please make immediate payment to the undersigned, who is authorized to receive the same.

JOHN L. THELEN,
NICOLAS BERTOLI,
sept 9 corner of Levee and Dumaine streets.

STATE OF LOUISIANA—2nd District Court. Parish of St. Louis—City of New-Orleans. It is ordered that the creditors of the insolvent's property be accepted for the benefit of his creditors, and it is further ordered that a meeting of the insolvent's creditors take place after legal notice at the office of J. F. V. Dauphine, notary public, in and for the parish of St. James, on the eighth day of September, 1834, and in default of which all proceedings against his person and property be stayed and let F. C. Nicholls, Esq., be appointed to represent absent creditors. 29th July, 1834.

BEN. WINCHESTER,
(Signed,) Judge of 2nd District.

July 29 Deputy clerk. aug 5

WM. SMITH,
GARDEN SEED STORE,
63 Camp-street, corner of Julia.
(Growth of 1834.)

Gardening has been so agreeable to Mr. Smith's friends and the public in general, that he has again received from the flourishing ship Ardenglas from New York, the first supply of fresh Field and Garden Seeds, of the growth of 1834, which he is now prepared to offer to his friends and customers, and others, at the lowest prices.

For the information and government of those residing at a distance, the subjoined catalogue, Beets, Carrots, Cabbages, Broccoli, Celery, Leeks, Lettuces, Onions, Parsley, Peas, Radish, Skirret, Salsafia, and Carrots, to be had for sale as above. WM. SMITH, sept 9 63 Customhouse st.

SAND GARDENER'S HOUSE.

THE Subscriber having leased to intimates his friends and the public that he has established himself in regular business at the above well known stand for the reception of Boarders, at which place he has commenced on the 1st inst., at which time he will be prepared to accommodate them with the best the market will afford, and will be diligent and attentive to their wants.

To those who prefer to reside in the country, the healthful situation of this establishment, its easy communication by steamboats to its door; and the moderate charges, will present, he believes, strong inducements to the public patronage, the liberal encouragement of which will be the constant endeavour of the subscriber.

Point Clear is situated about 30 miles below New Orleans, on Lake Borgne, nearly opposite the bay of St. Louis, immediately on the lake shore—the lake is 2 miles from the mouth of the Pearl river, which divides the Louisiana territory from that of the State of Mississippi—the passage in the steamboats old in four, and in sailing vessels in 12 hours, it is supposed that an epidemic cannot prevail there.

The table is abundant, [illegible] with the choicest delicacies of the season, and within a quarter of a mile of the house there is an extensive oyster bed, of which a constant supply will be had. The lake abounds with fish, and the sportsman will find excellent shooting in the season. Fishing and shooting parties will be furnished with boats, guides, &c. on application to the subscriber.

The bathing house, both hot and cold, have been erected, and all kinds of refreshments, such as Ices, Lemonade, Orgeat, &c. will be provided for the use of visitors.

Families can have communications [illegible] in separate buildings.

Terms will be moderate.

The most convenient way to and from Mobile stop daily at the point to steal; besides which, there are three other boats which witness all the steamers, so that there will be daily and almost hourly communication with the city. The time of [illegible] four hours, six or seven hours.

The Subscriber likewise informs the public that he has a large and commodious wharf in front of his premises, at which [illegible] and will find it a convenient place to land at. The extensive wharf is now building. GILBERT LEVY.
July 16

THE subscribers have received, and offer for sale,
50 Barrels Superfine Flour,
100 do do
25 do do
50 do Extra do
25 do Superfine Meal,
Prime Bordeaux
100 Barrels Cider,
2 Pipes and 4 Hogsheads Brandy,
300 Barrels mixed Oil,
15 Salve Blankets; 5 Quilted Petticoats,
Pale French Colognes; 10 [illegible] Violets,
11 cases 36 bottles each Superfine Champagne,
15 do do do Rich Wines of all kinds,
Superior Madeira Wines, 1-2, 1-4 and 1-8 Pipes,
Do do do Casks of different sizes,
Country Wines, and a complete assortment of Gentlemen's Store.
aug 29 GUION, WISE & PROFFIN.

GOOD FARE.

WARD & BEARD, taking leave of the spacious Tavern, at the corner of Bienville and St. Louis streets, inform their friends and the public that they have opened their new establishment, on the opposite corner, in the same street, between Bienville and St. Louis sts., offering the public for sale on the most accommodating terms, a choice assortment of Old Wine and Ale, also Cordials, Old Cognac Brandy, Whisky, and Rum. They hope from their attentive [illegible] to merit public patronage.
W. D. & E. MURPHY & Co.
aug 15 139 Bienville st.

For sale by [illegible] 200 Pensacola Fire bricks for sale as above.

[illegible] also sell all sorts of [illegible] for country purchasers, [illegible] for country purchasers, [illegible] cypress, [illegible] instruments for country purchasers, [illegible] and cisterns, and every kind of [illegible] instruments, [illegible] and cisterns, and every kind of Instruments, [illegible] and cisterns, and every kind of Instruments, [illegible] and cisterns, and every kind of