LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM FRANCE.

By the packet ship Sheffield, Capt. Allen, from Liverpool, 16 days later news have been received, the most important of which is the sudden resignation of the whole of the French ministry, with the exception of M. Persil, who, it is supposed, was prevented by accident from joining his colleagues; and at the time of the packet's sailing, a new ministry had not been formed. The following names are mentioned as likely to form part of the new Ministry. Marshal Soult to be President and to have the war department; Minister of the Interior; Count d'Argout, Finances; M. Cousin, Public Instruction; Mr Charles Empis, Commerce; M. Beranger, Justice; Admiral Jacob to remain Minister of Murine. It is supposed that this determination arose from the decided course of King Philippe to retrace his steps, and fall back on the same ground occupied by his prodecessors, and his attacks upon liberal institutions, and his determination to check the liberty of the press, and continue to punish political offences; have alarmed the ministry; and fearing the fate of Polignac, they have no doubt determined to reference in the control of Polignac, they have no doubt determined to retire.
