Garritt Gilbert is a gentleman of large fortune, who, though retired from business, has not retired from the toils of solidies, but on the contrary, has freely devoted his time, his money and his talents, to the great cause of Democracy. In the late contest, no man has done more for the contrary. In the late contest, no man has done more for the great cause of Democracy. In the late contest, no man has done more for the great cause of Democracy. In the late contest, no man has done more for the great cause of Democracy. In the late contest, no man has done more for the great cause then Garrit Gilbert, and his exertions have good equise than Garrit Gilbert; and his exertions have proceeded entirely from pure and patriolic motives—for AMERICAN THEATRE not even his enemies (if he have any) can accuse him of being an office seeker, muchless an office holder.

Ma Gilbert was selected up this occasion by New-York ns hor Grand Marshat, and was appointed by the meeting at Trenton first Vice President. At the table over which he presided, M. G. made a very happy, eloquent and appropriate address, which ho will we hope, give to the public. The celebration of the battle-field of Trenton, will we ting form a green and the morratic family."

The Hon. Jonn M. CLAYTON, of Relaware, has given otice that be intends to resign his seat in the Senate of the C. S. carly in January next.

We learn from the New York Evening Star, that Mr Reynoldson, late of the Park, has sailed for our city, for the purpose of getting up several English Operas at the Ameria can Theatre. The same paper adds; "There is no one in t'int line more espable than Mr. Reynoldson. He is an excellent musician, and possesses considerable experience and industry. The French company at New Orleans has long b en celubrated for their operas, which are complete in every respect; it is time that something in the English way should be got up equally as well.

The Wandering Piper is piping at Savannoh. The Charleaten Courier says, "That since he came to the United States he has collected about $3000, "all of which has gone to gladden the heart of the pour, or otherwise serve the purpo sees of bone tolence."
