CAUTION.

ON the 25th or 26th of February, 1834, I made my note in favor of John Hagan & Co, payable at ten months for Four Thousand Dollars. This note was endorsed by the payees, and was deposited by me, in the Bank of the Consolidated Association of the Planters of Louisiana.

No trace of it is now to be found in the Bank, nor has it been heard of, either by the maker, or endorsers, although passed due. This note never having been negociated, I now caution the public, should it ever make its appearance, against acquiring any interest in it, as I shall not feel myself either legally or morally bound to pay it.
