Mach curiosity and excitoment existed at Paris on the 14th and 15th of June, occasioned by reports of arrests at Algiers, and also in the French capital—The parties arrested at Algiers were six wealthy and influential Moers, charged with haying entered there comprisely to everthrow the French dominion in the question regency. They were in correspondence, it is said, with Abdel Kader. On being arrested, they were conveyed to Bona. They had agents in larir, some of whom had been arrested.

A still greater excitement had been occasioned by a violent philippic against the existing minastry, delivered in the Chamber of Deputies on the 14th; by M de Lafitte. M Thiers replied, very ably, on the 15th, virtiesting the policy of his colleagues and his own.
