INTERESTING TO CAPITALISTS.

A GENTLEMAN who owns one of the most original shares in the Pensacola Land Company, is disposed to sell a part of his interest. For this purpose his ninth will be considered as subdivided into 18 equal portions or parts: the price of each eighteenth is six thousand dollars cash.

The Pensacola Land Company own the land on which the Columbus and Pensacola Railroad, and also, the Blakely and Pensacola Railroad are to terminate, being together upwards of sixteen hundred acres, and on which, within the corporate limits of the city of Pensacola, they have laid off a town on the bay, capable of containing a population of more than 50,000 souls. A more beautiful site for a city can no where be found in the shores of the Gulph of Mexico. The balance of the company lands lie within and adjoining the city of Pensacola, and was where abound with beautiful and desirable building sites.

The several Railroads from Columbus to Pensacola, from Blakely to Pensacola, are in such a state of progress as to warrant the confident expection that in less than three years they will both be be fully complete and in operation. Within that time the rich and productive countries traversed by these roads will pour their agricultural wealth into this market. Pensacola will become (what her unrivalled bay and the unequalled salubrity of climate entitle her to be) a populous and extensively commercial city, and in less time than the completion of the roads the property now offered for sale will be worth more than four times the money now asked for it.

Each share in this property now offered for sale will contain something like [illegible] acres of land—including city lots and building sites in the city. A better opportunity for a safe and profitable investment, &c. but seldom been offered to capitalists.

Those who wish to purchase will make immediate application to, and may learn all other particulars upon making enquiry of THOMAS M. BLOUNT, Esq.
Agent for the Proprietor.
