NEW-ORLEANS : MORNING, AUGUST 26, 1836.

FOR PRESIDENT
MR. VAN BUREN.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT
RICHARD M. JOHNSON.

I prefer that not only you, but all the people of the United States shall now understand that of the whole of that portion of them which is favorable to my election, the chief magnet will be the South. I mean the presidential chair, the inflexible and uncompromised opponent of any attempt to interfere with the slaves in the districts of Columbia against the wishes of the slave holding states; and also with the determination equally decided to resist the attempts of the Slave Power to extend its empire where it exists.—Martin Van Buren.
