The Rail Road between Pensacela and Columbus, in Georgia, being now in programs will be completed under a centract, for the distance of 48 miles, by the lift of December, 1877. Other contracts will be entered into for the rapid extension of the road towards Columbus and Montgomery. On combpetion of fifty-two miles of the road, it is estimated, that at least 30,000 bales of cotton will be drawn from Mentgomery, Concech, Butler, part of Mentgomery, Rice, Covington, and Jale counties in Alabama. The completion of the whole line of Road to Columbus and Montgomery, will esthibit a rich and fertile country, predicting at least 300,000 bales of cotton, tributary to Passacela, at its most convenient market place.

The surveys of the Road from Pensacela to Blakely, in Alabama, distance 50 miles, have been made and resulted most favorably as to the very great facilities which the intervening country afforded for Rail Road improvement. This road will be put under comment, and completed as acon as possible, by which a line of communication will be opened between Pensacela and the waters of the Alabama river.

The Pensacela Land Company and the Pensacela Association are composed of gentletnen residing at Philadelphia, New York, and Pensacola, or respectability, intelligence and large capital, who are determined to make Pensacola what nature seems to have designed if to be, a great Commercial Hart, by connecting it with the rich regions of Alabama and to be commercial.
