NEW-ORLEANS BEE.

OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE STATE, GENERAL COUNCIL, OF THE FIRST AND THIRD MUNICIPALITIES, PRINTED BY JEROME BAYON, No. 110, CHARTRES.

No. 201. NEW ORLEANS, MONDAY MORNING, MAY 15, 1837. Vol. X.

TERMS OF THE BEE.

Subscription.—Twelve Dollars for the Daily paper, per annum, payable semi-annually in advance. Ten dollars for the tri-weekly country paper, payable one year in advance, where no city reference is given. No subscription will be discontinued until arrearages are settled. In case of discontinuance, one week's notice, in writing, must be invariably given, previous to the expiration of subscription.

Advertising.—One dollar per square, for the first insertion, and half that price for each subsequent one; any increase or reduction from the original advertisements will be charged as a new one. TEN lines or less is a square.

Yearly Advertisers.—Merchants and Traders, forty dollars for English alone, and 60 for both languages. Banks, Insurance Offices, and other similar public institutions, five dollars in English only, and 8-0 for both languages. Subscribers to semi-annual Factors, or annual Auctioneers, sixty dollars in English alone and $80 in both languages.

Marriages and Obituary Notices.—Articles will pay the ordinary rates for sales of property, and for those of negroes, horses, &c. &c. with the charges for sales at auction, for the first insertion of each language.

Communications.—All communications of a personal character, or which are to be charged as such, will be charged accordingly.

A deduction of twenty-five per cent. is allowed to Auctioneers, Sheriffs, Register of Wills, and Marshals, on their own sales. Regular Commercial Agents, and other persons in the habit of giving us a large advertising patronage, will be allowed a liberal discount on application.

Advertisements not marked for a certain time will be inserted until forbid, and charged accordingly.

No deduction will be made from the regular rates of advertising, except to persons in the habit of giving us a large patronage.

Subscribers wishing their papers discontinued will please to give notice at the office, otherwise they will be considered responsible for the payment.

Letters addressed to the Editor must be post paid.

Letters and communications for the paper must be addressed to the Editor, and not to any individual connected with the establishment.
