LOST CHILD.

A LITTLE NEGRO GIRL, aged about 3 or 4 years, has been brought to the Recorder's office. Some 15 days ago, as it appears by testimony and verbal declarations, a negro woman, with written leave by her master to hire herself out, took a room in the house No 130 Bienville street, between Carondelet and Dauphine streets, where she hired the eldest negro girl, leaving the youngest of which was found and taken up by Mr Joseph Bernard, who brought her to this office.

It has been said in the part of the town inhabited by the negro woman that her master here was Mr Smith who holds a public office.

The owner of said child is requested to claim her and pay the costs.

HIS greatness in the science [illegible] part of his art, and [illegible] of the first practitioners, his perfect knowledge of the mechanical part of his profession, and his practice followed with success for a number of years, will find it greatly to their interest to give him a call.

Those who [illegible] to [illegible] their teeth, by [illegible] or use [illegible] and [illegible] of the mouth; the [illegible] cultivation of the mind; the [illegible] heart, to [illegible] Christian ladies, prepared, [illegible] or use [illegible] and influence here, are for "glory, honor and immortality" [illegible]

All communications must be addressed to the "Rev. Dr. Eaton, D. D. Chaplain, and Professor of Belles Lettres, Mary Hall, Burlington, New Jersey" Burl. agent, March 1, 1837.

From the Rev. Dr. Tyng, Rector of the Church of Epiphany, Philadelphia.

The information on which I have received that the Rev. Dr. Eaton, of Burlington, has lady, are to be in St. Mary's Hall, the head of the Female school for the education of young ladies, so indeed me to offer you, for any parents, to promoting the interests of the Institution, my most expressive opinion of my feeling in [illegible] and its vicinity, there would be [illegible] early, in my asking commendation from Dr. Eaton, than I say offering it to him. In this section of the country, perhaps, my testimony may give me some advantages which he does not possess, therefore to say whenever I am known, and he is known, I have known him intimately from my childhood, and have never known a [illegible] in the above done, as an important light for the Eastern [illegible] Church in the time of its desolation, and as the [illegible] of many men in their young men in their [illegible] to [illegible] parents themselves. Parents may confide in the certainty, that whatever long tried piety, and modest, calm, and [illegible] Christian manners, and in [illegible] under [illegible] and sacred spirit, can do for [illegible] daughters, they will find in entrusting them to the care of Dr. Eaton. Mrs. Eaton is a lady of the most [illegible] estimation in Boston, as to the rank of the [illegible] and manners, and the class of society to [illegible] has been accustomed—as well as by her [illegible] and domestic character—will be found in a high degree qualified for the instruction of the young ladies [illegible] of her charge. I am of opinion, that no [illegible] institution can present, so far as the heads of the family are concerned, an unsurpassed [illegible] the arrangements for the department of instruction—or more advantageous for those young ladies, for [illegible] can be procured.

From the Rev. Dr. Eastburn, Rector of the Church of the Advent, Boston.

Right Rev. and Dear Sir,—In reply to your request, that I would state to you my opinion of the literary and qualifications of Miss Eaton and her sister, I [illegible] pleasure to say, that from testimonials which I have had [illegible] to the conviction, that they would prove an [illegible] acquisition to any establishment for female education, in which they may be placed. With both of these ladies my acquaintance is of a recent date. The elder of them, however, whom you have selected as the Principal of Mary Hall, I have had an opportunity of observing once or twice lately, and have learned enough from these interviews to say with the [illegible] that you will find in her not only a lady of great accomplishments, but one fitted, by the [illegible] delicacy, and by a judicious [illegible] of [illegible] sentiments, and by her [illegible] to exert the most salutary influence upon all entrusted to her care. I think it right to state, that these ladies received their education at a school of great celebrity at Hartford, in New England, the advantages of which, though, perhaps, not generally known in this country, will be properly appreciated by those who are acquainted with its character. That these highly recommendations may secure you an extensive blessing, in the new sphere of action which they have selected, is the prayer of yours [illegible]
