BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

IN pursuance of law, I Martin Van Buren, President of the United States of America, do hereby declare and make known, that a public sale will be held at each of the undermentioned land offices, commencing on Monday, the ninth day of October next, for the disposal of the public, on appropriate terms, within the limits of the townships herein described, to wit:

At Laporte, in the State of Indiana, for the disposal of the public lands within fractional township number three, north of range five, west of the second principal meridian.

At Helena, in the State of Arkansas, for the disposal of the public lands within the limits of township numbered six, north of range numbered six east.

At Opelousas, in the State of Louisiana, for the disposal of the public lands within the limits of township numbered eleven, north of range twelve west.

At St Stephens, in the State of Alabama, for the disposal of the public lands within the limits of township number seven, south of the thirty first degree of latitude, of range two west.

At Columbus, in the State of Mississippi, for the disposal of the public lands within the limits of township number two, of range two, west.

At Milwaukee, in the territory of Wisconsin, for the disposal of the public lands within the limits of township numbered ten, of range eleven, east.

Lands appropriated by law for the use of schools, military or other purposes, will be excluded from sale.

The sales will each be kept open for two weeks (unless the Lands are sooner disposed of) and no longer; and no private entries of land in the townships so offered will be admitted until after the expiration of the two weeks.

Given under my hand, at the city of Washington, this twenty-eighth day of June, anno Domini 1837.

M. VAN BUREN.
