DOMESTIC MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Oct 13.

Specie—The sales this morning were 3000 Mexican dollars at ¼ premium. We notice American dollars at 5⅛ — half dollars, 5 a 5⅛ per cent. Sovereigns, 5 — Napoleons, 5 — Dubloons, — a 917; Patriot do, $16,40 a $16.50.

The money Drafts—Sales this morning of $8700 at ¼ premium.

NEW YORK, Oct 11.

Cotton—The transactions in our market owing to continued tightness of the money market remain very limited, and prices are well sustained. Sales amount to 1250 bales of which 700 were old Upland at 9 a 10; 200 new do at 10¼ a 12¼, 100 Alabama at 9 a 10¼, 100 New Orleans, 9 a 12¼, 100 Mobile at 9 a 12¼, and 100 Florida at 10 a 11¢ cents.

Coffee—The demand continues animated, chiefly for home use, and prices are firm at our quotations.—Sales include 700 a 1000 bags Brazil at 10¾ a 11 cents with some at 11¼; 300 Laguira, 10¾ a 11; 14 bbls 60 11. Cabage Cuba at 11¾ cents; 200 bags Rio at 12¼ and 500 do Porto Rico 10¾, all at 4 months; 300 St Domingo 9, and 180 Marseilles 9¾ cash. All the Laguira is now on the market, and with the exception of Brazil, the stock is very light.

Molasses—The receipts being still very small, the last descriptions, which are wanted for boiling, rule have improved in price; sales include 50 bbls Cienfuegos at 24¢ 25 cash; 50 do at 25 cents; 70 do New Iberia 23 a 24¢ 4 months; some superior Cuba, 34 cash, and 30 hhds Trinidad, coarse, 27 cents, on time.

Sugar—Prices have well maintained, but transactions continue much restricted by the smallness of the stock, sales of 180 hhds Porto Rico at 5 a 5¾, 100 do St Croix, 6 a 6¾, 30 do New Orleans 7 a 7½, 1000 bags do 7¼ a 9¾, principally at the common rate, and a boat load to go out of market; 50 boxes White Cuba, 11¾, an 800 pieces to arrive coastwise; yamaga brand 10¾, and a few hundred boxes Brown do 8¼ a 8¾c per lb at 4 mos.

RICHMOND, Oct 12.

Cotton—9 to 11 cents nominal, as before, nothing doing.

Tobacco—Leaf, $2,25 a 2,35; Leaf, common, $3,50 a 4,50; middling, $5 a 5,50; good, $6 a 6,50; fine shipping, 6,75 a 8,75; extra fine for manufacturing, 9 a $12, strikes dull this week, and prices rather lower. Ordinary qualities however have composed the bulk of inspections.

Flour—Canal has given way an eighth since our last, whilst the demand is not supplied by receipts.—Quotations may be stated at $7,75, at which price last sales were effected. Mills $8 a $8,25 as to quality.

Wheat—Receipts are still small, perhaps a little increased, and the market does not exhibit much firmness. White $1,70; red $1,65 a 1,67.

Corn—Is held at 63 a 65¢, in bbls 65 a 70¢, stock light, and in demand.

Rice—There is very little of the crop now for sale, and is more than probable that present prices will be maintained until the arrival of the new crop in market. The sales comprise 65 tierces at 6½, 180 at 6¾ and 50 at 6¾.

Flour—There is an extremely dull market for Flour. We quote $7,50 a 8 according to quality which is a decline on last week's prices.

SAVANNAH, Oct 13.

Cotton—We have experienced a fair and somewhat improved demand for Cotton since our last report of the 1st inst. New Upland and Alabama have been active at 10¾ a 11¾ cents. The receipts continue small in consequence of the impoverished state of the river—we may look for increased supplies ere long. The sales amount to 750 bales of the following prices viz: 4 at 7¾; 34 at 9¾, 69 at 9, 7 at 8¾, 69 at 9, 224 at 10; 55 at 10¾, 17 at 10¾, 27 at 10¾, 74 at 11, 17 at 11¼, 88 at 11¾; 7 at 11¾.

Rice—There is rather a moderate demand at improved rates. Sales of 300 casks at 6¼ a 6¾, mostly at the latter price, and some very fine.

Flour—Sales are very dull and the supply large.—Sales of 50 bbls new Howard street at 10. 60 bbls old not 9¾.

Corn—There is a fair retail demand for Groceries of all descriptions. We report sales of 10 cask and 100 bags Cuba Coffee at 11; 10 hhds N O Sugar at 6¾; St Croix 10¾, and small parcels of Cuba Molasses at 24 a 25 cents.

NEW ORLEANS:

FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 20, 1837.

Attempts have been more than once made to banish the French language from the public acts of Louisiana, and the decisions of the Supreme Court have hitherto negatived these endeavors. The proposition of Mr. Shaumburg, as detailed in our paper of yesterday, is unquestionably the boldest effort of the kind. By this resolution, every communication from the Mayor to the Council of the Second Municipality, must be translated into English before it is presented to that body—under penalty of being returned unread, in case of non-compliance with the resolution. It is in vain that the appearance of reason is assigned to this monstrous proposition. The municipal council is instituted for the purpose of protecting the interests of every citizen without regard to distinctions of origin or language, nor can the indigenous population of Louisiana, the Creoles so called, be excluded from municipal employments, or be deprived of the relations they hold in regard to magistrates elected by themselves. Many of the inhabitants even of the Second Municipality are not acquainted with the language, which by the verdict of its Council, is pronounced the only legal one; and it is a glaring violation of the spirit and letter of the treaty of cession of this state, to interfere with one of its most important privileges—the native tongue of its citizens. The autocrat of all the Russias certainly possesses the power of disseminating a compulsory language among his serfs—a power he has exercised with regard to trampled Poland, but happily we are neither the slaves of despotism, nor can we consider the Ukase of Mr. Shaumburg as irreversible. We are not a little astonished that the act in question should emanate from him whose father was the companion in arms of many brave men, who did not fight the less valiantly for their country because they possessed not its language. This gentleman is, too, if we mistake not, a Creole. Strange that he should seek to extinguish the mother tongue of the city that gave him birth.

It seems not improbable that this resolution of the Second Municipality is an election ruse for the purpose of excluding any member of the ancient population from the office of Mayor. This project of destroying the French language is, perhaps, a cloak to conceal the creation of a formidable opposition, and fix public choice on some candidate who does not acknowledge a possessor of the French tongue as the an American by birth and principle—some aspirant to office, who forgets in his antipathy to the language, that a people who speak it were the warmest adherents of our country during the revolutionary struggle; and the original holders of this very state, now forming so conspicuous a star in the splendid galaxy of our national banner.

Is it not infamous that the intrigues of faction, the petty passions of a party should assail laws tending to compromise the harmony and general friendship existing between the Americans and Creole population: a union almost fraternal in its character, and every day become more compact and firmer. The division of the city into separate municipalities, while disadvantageous in some respects, was beneficial at all events, in separating diverse interests which were continually made to clash by the encroachments of a factious spirit of jealousy and dissention. Perfect and unbroken concord would, it was hoped, have succeeded this measure, but now innovation has once more interfered in our municipal concerns, and a question is agitated, and a decree passed, implicating the subject of vital importance, and threatening to engender discord amongst citizens now united by the ties of interest and amity.

The Mayor, however, actuated by a perfectly natural sentiment, has refused his sanction to this resolution, and has grounded this refusal upon satisfactory objections. He felt how gross the injustice would be of permitting one municipality to dictate to two, and of suffering that body to place itself in an attitude of defiance and menace with regard to the others. The author of the resolution in question could not have collected that the 1st and 3d Municipalities constitute a majority in the general council, and that the Mayor of the city of New Orleans, being constantly engaged in business with two Municipalities of which the greater part of the citizens speak French, must necessarily make himself understood by them, and that it is his duty to ascertain that the ordinances by which they are governed be comprehended, which can only be effected by the employment of the two languages.

The veto of the Mayor is supported by various decisions of the supreme court; but one principle adopted by the two Houses of our Legislature to dismiss from their lawe in the two languages is no more than the result of a custom previously rendered sacred by long continued habit; and if the language of Louisiana were not in use on such occasions, the inhabitants of the country would no longer be capable of perusing the decrees by which they are governed.

The proposer of the resolution must indeed be desirous of conciliating the esteem of those foes to the French language, but he forgets that nine tenths, or more are but birds of passage, transitory comers, who visit New Orleans as speculators or settlers. When attained, in their native states. To sacrifice the language of the Creole population to the capricious tyranny of a party, the interests of which are, in many cases, not identified with those of our indigenous inhabitants is, to say the least, a preposterous abuse of power. The dearest of all feelings in the mind of an honorable man, is the respect which he entertains for his origin. The abandonment of his maternal tongue is a virtual renunciation of that consideration connected with that origin, and we are grossly in error, if Louisianians are content to accept the proposition. The courageous veto of the Mayor will be re-echoed in every part of Louisiana where the French language still predominates, and the Legislature at its ensuing session will doubtless not only manifest its disapproval of the attempt on the part of the 2nd Municipality to abolish the native tongue of our city, but will pass laws securing to our citizens the rights and immunities guaranteed to them in that act, by which they became identified with our glorious republic.

We intended upon this argument by the collateral aid of certain laws to this effect, but the message of the Mayor appended to this article, supersedes the necessity of legal citation. We recommend it to our readers as furnishing conclusive reasoning against the resolution of the 2nd Municipality, a resolution which we again denounce in the strongest terms as fraught with consequences of the most dangerous character.

MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS.

17th Oct., 1837.

To the President and Members of the Council of the Second Municipality.

Gentlemen:

Among the resolutions passed at your last sitting, I remarked one having for object to request me to transmit to you for the future, every message and all documents I may have to submit to you, in the language in which the constitution of the United States is written. I object to this resolution was based on the reasons which preceded it, to-wit: "that the Council experience great inconvenience and delay when called upon to act upon any document written in the French language, which a majority of the members do not understand." I would limit myself to observing to you, that it would not be just to throw upon the Mayor's office a work which ought to have been performed by the Secretary of each Council, inasmuch, as from all times, the letters of the Mayor, as well as all documents whatever, presented to that body, have been, and are still translated into the French into English, or from English to French, agreeably to the language in which they are written, and particularly that which is most frequently used by members who wish to be informed of them. That the same difficulty would constantly recur so long as one of the two languages shall not become the prevailing one with our population; this is the reason why the Secretaries of the old Council and of the new once, have always been selected from among those to whom both languages are equally familiar, & that consequently the transactions which the majority or minority of the Council may stand in need of, are a part of the duty or duties of those officers. I will add further that the division of the city into three Municipalities having considerably increased the work in the Mayor's office, and obliging me to correspond with three Councils, in two of which, the French language is more frequently spoken than the English, it would be complicating and increasing the work, to place me under the necessity of translating myself, or to cause it to be translated, each of my letters to one of these Councils.

But the resolution in question appears not to be based alone on the jealousy of the Council of the Second Municipality receiving any communications in English; it is also based upon the text of a law of congress, and upon a part of the constitution, which I submit to the interpretation given to it, when you appear to lessen the obligation, and I think it my duty to express to the Council my reasons why I entertain a different opinion on that point.

The law of Congress approved the 16th Feb. 1811, to authorise the Territory of Orleans to form a State Government, and the 15th section of the constitution do not apply and cannot apply to the relations existing between the Mayor and the Councils, but only to the acts of the Legislature and to the judicial proceedings of the State. This exception has already been submitted to the decision of the Supreme Court in the different cases, and especially in that which relates to the city council. In the affair of the Police Jury against the McDonough, decided in July 1819, that tribunal thus enrolled its opinion upon the validity of the minutes of the proceedings of the Police Jury written in French.

"The objections made to the admission in evidence of the minutes of the deliberations of the Police Jury on account of those being in the French language ought not to be sustained. They are not of that description required by the Constitution to be in English, (Martins Report vol. 7, page 68.)

The same opinion was confirmed in a more explicit manner still, by a judgment subsequently given in the affair of Lose against the Mayor and Aldermen, in May 1831. The Supreme Court says it down as a principle that "an ordinance of the city council is obligatory, although it be only promulgated in French; this was evidently the reason for the opinion.

"The constitution of this State, indeed, prescribed the use of the National language in the promulgation and preservation of all laws that may be passed by the Legislature, the public records of the State, the legislative and written proceedings of the same.

We are of opinion that this constitutional provision cannot without too limited a construction, be held that laws and ordinances of corporations, whatever force and effect such by-laws and ordinances may have, they cannot have conferred by the Legislature of the State. In the case of the Police Jury vs M'Donough, we hold that the proceedings of Police Juries did not come within the provisions of the constitution, and consequently the same cannot be distinguished from that (Louisville Reports, vol. 2, pages 197 and 203.")

These reasons, gentlemen, induce me to send back to your further consideration, the resolution which has been the subject of my remarks.

I have the honor to be, respectfully,

Gentlemen, your humble ser't,

D. PRIEUR, Mayor.

Further Particulars concerning the Insurrection.

We subjoin the following details extracted from the Natchez Tri-Weekly Courier.

TROUBLES AT ALEXANDRIA LA.—Our city for some time past has been rife with reports of servile troubles among the citizens of our neighbouring State Louisiana at the town of Alexandria.

The steamboat Alpha which arrived at this city on the night before last, brings intelligence corroborative of the reports. A statement is in circulation of the most startling and we give particulars as derived from one of the officers of the boat. We still hope that rumor as usual has made the matters engaged in this affair larger than in reality they are.

The statement is that the boat left on the 10th instant, on which day eleven negroes were executed, and fourteen more are to share the same fate. Sixty-three remained in custody, to undergo further examination Two white men were said to be implicated in the affair, who had made their escape, but were closely pursued.

In addition to the above, a gentleman of this city has furnished us with the following letter from Alexandria, formerly of this place, which confirms the statements that the reports are in a great measure corroborated, making due allowance for the latter having been written at an earlier hour in the day than the time of the boat's departure. We are pained to learn that section of the country is severely scourged by sickness.

Alexandria, Oct. 10th 1837.

B. B. STEDMEN, Esq.

Dear Sir, I have but a moment to inform you of the state of affairs in this region. On Thursday night last a plot was discovered from incontrovertible evidence, that an attempted insurrection was contemplated by the negroes generally throughout the parish, which proved to be a fact. The negroes were to have risen, and when all were of one mind, informed his master that on that night there would be a special meeting of the principal negroes in that part of the parish, at an old deserted house, where Mr Cherry, the boy's master, with several others, repaired, and found his statement correct. They then secured two of the ringleaders, who confessed their whole arrangements. They were hot to lose a day lest some should escape, and four others were hung this morning, and we have now in jail from thirty to forty more, most of whom will share their fate. They were to have risen on Saturday night.

Your obedient servant,

R DEMING.

P. S. The fever is killing every one it attacks in this place.

BY THE EXPRESS MAIL.

Pennsylvania Election.

By the Express Mail we have partial returns from that state. In Philadelphia county the democratic ticket has been chosen by a majority of 2 or 400; in Montgomery county by a large majority. In Mifflin, Juniata and Cumberland counties, considerable majorities have been given to the democrats. In Union, Franklin, Dauphin, Chester, Bucks and Lancaster, the opposition have succeeded; in Philadelphia city, they have likewise triumphed. In Buck's county one democrat has been elected. The final result as yet is highly uncertain.

Wilmington City Election.—The friends of the National administration in Wilmington (Del.) carried their ticket for city officers on Tuesday last, with the exception of one member of the Council.

In New Jersey, as far as heard from, there was little difference from the elections of last year. The same counties have chosen candidates of similar principles.

Proceedings in Congress.

IN SENATE, OCTOBER 11th.

After some remonstrances against the admission of Texas from certain counties in Pennsylvania had been presented, the Bill for the consideration of the WARE HOUSE SYSTEM was resumed. A motion was made by Mr. Clay to postpone the bill until the next session.—He desired more time, and required more information before deciding on the subject. The question of postponement underwent some discussion, and the yeas and nays being finally demanded by Mr. Buchanan, the proposition was rejected by a vote of 23 to 15.

Mr Clay had prepared certain amendments, but could not propose them, a part of the Senate being absent.

The bill being then reported as amended, and amendments concurred in, was ordered to be engrossed by the following vote. For the engrossment 28; against it 5.

The consideration of the amendments by the House, to the bill providing for an extension of Dey Bonds, was postponed till the next day.

The Bill for revoking the charters of District Banks was next considered. A motion to postpone further action on the subject till next December, underwent considerable discussion, but was finally withdrawn.

Mr. Webster wished to strike out the 1st and 2nd sections, leaving that which provides for the suppression of Shin Plasters. This amendment was agreed to.

The bill was then ordered to be engrossed and read a third time.

A bill by Mr. Wall was introduced for the relief of Mrs Madison, was read twice and ordered to a third reading. This bill recovers to Mrs Madison a portion of the copy-right of Mr. Madison, the whole of which was conveyed to her by the United States.

HOUSE.

A resolution by Mr. Johnson of La., calling on the Secretary of War to report at the next session the best mode of protecting the Northern Frontier from the Indians—was agreed to.

The Bill regulating the fees of District Attorneys in certain cases, was taken up, and passed.

The consideration of Mr. Wises' resolution for an investigation of the conduct of the Seminole War is not yet concluded.

A motion to take up the Sub Treasury Bill was agreed to—104 to 36. The House was addressed for and against the Bill by Messrs Hunter, Huffman and Mason.

19TH OCTOBER.

In the Senate petitions remonstrating against the admission of Texas were presented by Mr. Webster. The subject of the bankrupt law, after some discussion, was passed over for the present by general consent.

A bill to revoke the charters of the Banks in the District of Columbia, read a third time and passed.—Also a bill for the relief of D. Madison, and a bill for authorizing merchandize to be deposited in the public stores.

In the House the discussions on the Divorce Bill still continued.
