NEW-ORLEANS BEE.

OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE STATE, GENERAL COUNCIL, OF THE FIRST AND THIRD MUNICIPALITIES, PRINTED BY JEROME BAYON, No. 110, CHARTRES.

No. 57. NEW ORLEANS, WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 22, 1837. Vol. XI.

TERMS OF THE BEE.

Subscription.—Twelve Dollars for the Daily paper, per annum, payable annually in advance. Ten dollars for the tri-weekly country paper, payable one year in advance, where no city residence is given. No subscription will be discontinued until arrearages are settled. In case of discontinuance, one week's notice, in writing, must be invariably given, previous to the expiration of subscription.

Advertising.—One dollar per square, for the first insertion, and half that price for each subsequent one; any material alteration from the original advertisements will be charged as a new one. TEN lines or less is a square.

Advertisements ordered to be published at intervals, will be charged one dollar per square, for each insertion.

Yearly Advertising.—Merchants and Traders, sixty dollars for English alone and 60 for both languages, Banks, Insurance Offices, and other similar public institutions, fifty dollars in English only, and 100 for both languages. Ship and steam-boat Factors, or commission merchants, sixty dollars in English alone and 100 for both languages.

Marriage, and Obituary Notices.—Articles calling the attention of the public to sales of property, cards of passengers, benefits, &c. &c. will be charged one dollar per square, for the first insertion in each language.

Communications or Advertisements of any personal nature, when admissible shall be charged double, and in advance.

A deduction of twenty-five per cent, will be made on Auctioneers, Sheriffs, Register of Wills and Marshals' sales, when published in both languages, and 50 per cent. in English alone, 10 per cent on sales of other property.

Advertisements out of the direct line of business of the paper, such as legal, auction, and plantation sales, runaway slaves, stray animals, &c. &c. will be charged for separately and at the ordinary rates.

Advertisements not specified as to time will be published one month, and charged accordingly.

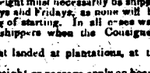
No advertisements of bankruptcies will be published in any case, unless paid for previous to insertion, or payment guaranteed by a responsible person in town.

Theatrical or other places of amusement, advertising daily for the season, to be charged 100 dollars for English alone, and 150 dollars in both languages.

All announcements of candidates for political offices shall be charged double the price of other advertisements.

FOR BATON ROUGE.

And all intermediate landings.



The new and elegant steam boat Brilliant, Thos Clark, master, will leave for the above, and all intermediate landings, on every Wednesday and Saturday, at 8 o'clock in the morning, and leave Baton Rouge every Thursday and Monday at the same hour.

The Brilliant will take all up freight, and down freight, only in the hold.

By this arrangement, coast passengers may rely on making a speedy and safe passage by day light, without the disagreeable necessity of travelling on a boat loaded to the guards with cotton.

All freight must necessarily be shipped on Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays, as none will be received the morning of starting. In all cases way freight to be paid by shippers when the Consignees are not on board.

Freight landed at plantations, at the risk of the owners.

For freight or passage apply on board.

N. B.—No debts will be paid by the boat, unless contracted by order of the captain.

CHAMPAIGN—200 cases sparkling Champaign, of the favorite brand, for sale by KENNEDY, DUFEL & CO, oct 27 5 Toulouse street.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, on the 14th instant, a negro man named Dick, aged 25 years. Stout built and very black complexion, large mouth and black gums—he speaks English only, and when speaking to hangs his head down and answers very indifferently and is of a sluggish look. He had on when he absented himself a pair of white calloshy pantaloons. Said negro was brought from Natchez in the month of June last and purchased from Claiborne of Mississippi. Captains of steamboats are warned against harboring the above negro. A reasonable reward will be given to any one who will deliver said negro to the subscriber or lodge him in jail.

nov 21 3t JOSEPH DAVENPORT.

TWENTY FIVE DOLLARS REWARD

Will be paid to whoever will arrest and secure in one of the jails in this state, by giving notice to the subscriber, the negro DANIEL, aged about 22 years, he is smart and has an open countenance, is a good house servant. He is a hostler and drives very well a carriage. He was owned by Mr Jouvet, from whom I purchased of the subscriber. He speaks French and English, and will probably try to pass as a free man and offer his services as being an intelligent boy, on board of a steamboat or in an hotel.

Art. 3. No fire wood shall be sold within the city of New Orleans and its incorporated suburbs, otherwise than by the cord, by quarter of a cord or by the cord, and the cord of fire wood shall be eight feet long by four feet in depth, (American measure) so that the sticks be not four feet (same measure) in length.

Art. 4. No person who shall sell in the city or suburbs, fire wood in carts, shall use for that purpose a cart or carts measuring eight feet in length, (American measure) four feet in breadth, in the fore part within the racks, and three feet in the hind part within the racks, and each of the aforesaid racks shall be two feet five inches high.

Art. 5 From and after the first November next, all forme-ordinances respecting fire wood shall be null and void.

Approved, October 20, 1837.

It is decreed by the City Council of New Orleans until otherwise ordained, that fire wood transported on the city and incorporated suburbs, may be sold although the same should not be of four feet in length, according to the standard established in the aforesaid recited, provided in such case the vendor give a quantity of wood sufficient to compete the number of cubic feet which the cord, by quarter or cord, is under the allowance of four feet to ten dollars against the offender, one half of which fine shall be for the benefit of the informer and the other half for the benefit of the city.

Approved, April 11, 1818.
