U. STATES DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S Office, New Orleans, Dec. 8th, 1837.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform those persons upon whose bonds for duties suits have been instituted, that in reply to a letter addressed to the solicitor of the Treasury in the U States he received instructions to extend the benefit of renewal to them upon payment of costs and furnishing additional security to the satisfaction of the collector. The same indulgence is also months from the moment of the delay.

Those persons, therefore, who desire to extend their bonds need not call, will pay to the clerk of the U. States district court the costs incurred and take duplicate copies. Upon presenting these receipts to the collector, and executing a new instrument in regard to the contemplated term, with the original sureties and new sureties, and furthermore, on presentation of a certificate of these facts from the collector to the undersigned, they will be entitled to the dismissal of the suits against them.

The only persons who by the instructions of the solicitor of the treasury are to be excluded from the benefit of this extension, are those "who have failed by the proper officers of the government to make over, or unsafe securities for the payment of their bonds."

New Orleans, 25th November, 1837.
D. PRIEUR, Mayor.

Agreeably to the preceding advertisement, public notice is hereby given, that on Saturday, 16th December next, at 12 o'clock at noon, at the Exchange, situated at the corner of Chartres and St. Louis streets, the lots above mentioned, upon which the conditions of the sales mentioned hereafter, situate in the faubourg Treme, making part of the property lately belonging to Marie Therese Delille Blanc, which sales were made by Mr. Dutilly, auctioneer, for account of said municipality, No one on the 9th day of January, and 10th of March last past, at the Exchange, corner of Chartres and St. Louis streets, the said lots will be again sold for their account and risk, agreeably to law.

Lots situate in faubourg Treme, which were sold on the 10th day of March last—a credit of six, nine and twelve months was granted, under the law which made part of the plantation formerly belonging to Blanc, adjudicated on the same day—a credit of one, two, three, four and five years, is most satisfactorily endorsed and bearing mortgage until paid.

The lots forming a part of the plantation formerly owned by Mr. Phelan, are subject to a mortgage existing in favor of the said E. Blanc, to guarantee the payment of a sum of forty five thousand dollars, payable in fifty years, in bonds subscribed by the citizens of the city of New Orleans, and bearing an interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum.

The deeds of sale of all those lots, to be executed before Thomas Limerick, Notary Public, at the cost of the purchasers, who shall also bind themselves to take possession of the same.
D. PRIEUR, Mayor.
