The Message.

A multitude of crude and suggestive thoughts, such as the document has been compiled, but few solid, well-matured topics, may have been offered against the views of the President, in the course of the remarks which we have published in the Bee, from day to day, but we are unprepared to the extensive task of refutation.

The Express Mail vs. Steamboats.

The Express Mail from Orleans arrives here in 36½ hours, and is due at Washington on the 40th in the forenoon preceding Ambassador, Oct. 31st, which, to use a Western phrase, is "tarnation" quick, considering the distance and the state of the roads.

The Florida War.

The Express Mail from Florida, which arrived at the usual hour yesterday, from which it appears that the Indians were completely in the power of the troops. The capture has exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the friends of the Union.

Legislature.

Thirteenth Legislature, Second Session.

House of Representatives.

Wednesday, Dec. 13th, 1837.

The House met at 10 o'clock, A. M. Present 96 members.

Mr. Mudge moved to reject the petition of Mr. Morgan, and that it be not printed.

Mr. Prevost observed that Mr. Morgan had not the privilege of the floor, and that the petition was not before the House.

Mr. Mudge replied that Mr. Morgan had been permitted to address the House, and that the petition was before the House.

The Speaker decided that the petition was not before the House.

Mr. Mudge appealed from the decision of the Chair.

Mr. Prevost moved that the appeal be laid on the table.

Mr. Mudge called for the yeas and nays, which were ordered, and resulted as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Bullard, Bullitt, Cage, Chambers, Chaplin, Chinn, Clark, Cole, Conrad, Cox, Crawford, Cuvillier, Dawkins, Dennis, Dickson, Dubuclet, Duncan, Fellows, Fenner, Flower, Fortier, Fuqua, Gaines, Gallagher, Gardner, Gayarre, Gilmore, Gordon, Gray, Hall, Hamilton, Hardy, Harrison, Hatch, Hebert, Hennen, Hewlett, Hickey, Hill, Hoffman, Hopkins, Hunt, Jones, Kenner, Kerr, Kilbourn, Kilpatrick, Labatut, Lacoste, Lafitte, Lanaux, Lanfear, Lawrence, Lee, Lewis, Lobdell, Lockett, Lyons, Mackie, Mahon, Marks, Marshall, Mathews, Mayo, Mazureau, Mudge, Nicholson, Nolte, Nott, Pierce, Pitot, Prevost, Prieur, Rabasse, Rawle, Reed, Richardson, Roberts, Robertson, Rost, Sauvinet, Schmidt, Seghers, Shaw, Simmons, Smith, Stanton, Stith, Strawbridge, Sutherland, Thomas, Tompkins, Trudeau, Turner, Vignie, Wallace, Walton, Watkins, Wheeler, Wilkinson, Wilson, Wood, Wright, Yeatman, Yerger, Young—96.

NAYS—None.

So the motion was carried.

Mr. Mudge moved to reject the petition of Mr. Morgan, and that it be not printed.

Mr. Prevost moved that Mr. Morgan be heard on the petition at the bar of the House.

Mr. Mudge moved that the petition be rejected.

Mr. Prevost moved that the petition be referred to the Committee on Improvements
