The United States vs. four cases of hats marked V D. 12 3,4,5,6, and one case of clothing marked V. D. 12 7.

IN the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Louisiana—No. 3293. By virtue of an admiralty warrant to me directed, I have seized and taken into my possession the above described articles of hats and clothing, and I do hereby cite and admonish the owner or owners thereof, and all and every other person or persons having or pretending to have any right, title or interest in or to the above described articles of hats and clothing to be and appear in a district court of the United States, for the Eastern District of Louisiana, to be holden at the city of New Orleans, on or before the third Monday from the date hereof to show cause, if any they have or can, why the said above described cases should not be condemned, and said articles to the prayer of the libellants.

Marshal's office, New Orleans, December 15, 1837.

J. H. HOLLAND, U. S. Marshal.

James Campbell vs. Steamer Comandor.—R. Parkinson, Jr. Steamer Comandor, owner &c. the same.

IN the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Louisiana—By virtue of three writs of fieri facias to me directed, will be sold at public auction, at the Exchange corner of St. Louis and Charters streets, to the highest bidder for cash, on Saturday the sixth day of January next, at twelve o'clock, P. M. a piece of ground, with improvements thereon, situated in the Second Municipality, fronting on Julia street, in Musicians' Alley, No 2, of the city, and Julia street, in Musicians' Alley, No 2, of the city, corner and measures about thirty feet front on Julia street by about one hundred feet in depth, and the lot so bounded as to the first and second lots in front, and bounded partly by other property—measures about 3 feet, more or less, and seized to satisfy the judgments rendered in favor of the said steamboat Comandor heretofore rendered in the above mentioned suits.

J. H. HOLLAND, U. S. Marshal.

James Campbell vs. Steamer Columbus, claim of Louis D. Winnemore & others.

IN the District Court of the United States, Eastern District of Louisiana—No ——. In obedience to the commands of an admiralty warrant to me directed, I do hereby give notice that intervening claims have been filed in this cause by Louis D. Winnemore for $400, John Smith for $13 50, John C. Hodge $13 50 by Gaspuel for $39 93 and I do hereby cite and admonish the owner or owners thereof, and all and every other person or persons, having or pretending to have any right, title or interest in or to the steamboat Columbus, to appear in a District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Louisiana, to be holden at the city of New Orleans, on or before the 14th day from the date hereof, to show cause if any they have, or can why the said claimants shall not have judgment for the account claimed and be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of said steamboat heretofore made.

Important to Merchants and others.

ACHILLES PATENT FILE PRESS, for the delivery and conviction of letters, papers, bonds, and all places where it is necessary to keep letters or current papers in compact order, and ready for instant reference.

This recent, simple and ingenious invention supplies a want which has always been felt in all places of business where it is desirable to keep files of current papers in regular and compact order, and ready for immediate reference and inspection. The many in favor in every quarter where it has been used, fully prove, or feels equal that it cannot fail to come extensively into selection to all who may be induced to give it a trial. As an evidence 1000 were sold in New York in ten days.

The Presses are made of malleable iron and in portable form, and adapted to hills, letters, invoices and all kinds of papers, and to contain from one hundred to about one hundred pounds in weight as near as may be to them, thus keeping them perfectly neat, clean and compact, each being accompanied by a folder adapted to the press and the style of neatness and elegance in which they are finished, render them handsome articles for the counting room, or the library table.

The subscribers would be happy to show this article at most ease and convenience to those who may favor them with a call.
