Practical and Ornamental Penmanship taught at DERBAR & BROTHERS' Writing Academy, No 8 Chartres street.—The extensive patronage which the system of Writing has received in various parts of the United States, and the increasing application for instructions in the science, as well as the practice of Writing, in accordance therewith, establishment in New York, New Orleans and Mobile, and in their opinion unrivalled greater facility for the acquisition of Penmanship, than are afforded in any other institution in the country. In addressing one of them has the privilege of standing at either or the others without extra charge. The Institution has been in operation for upwards of 20 years, during which period many hundreds have received lessons in this art, and the success at any hour of the day. Ladies are taught a delicate and rapid ornamental style; also, various styles of ornamental writing, suited to Albums, Notes of Hand, &c. Gentlemen are taught a free and expeditious hand writing, suitable to facilitate business transactions, by dispensing with the delay incident to deciphering the hieroglyphical characters of most persons' business and writing, to the great waste of time and expense. Persons visiting the city for only a few days will receive special attention.

The number of Lessons is limited, but every person who enters is desired to remain till he writes sufficiently well for any kind of business. This is the request of both teacher and pupil.

Ladies who prefer it can receive lessons at their own residence. Ornamental writing executed with elegance.

N. B. Dolbear's "Science of Penmanship" scientifically designed for private learners and schools, and calculated for purchase of all ages, imparting an ease and freedom not attained by any other method. A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the greatest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance and prematurely destroys the appearance of age, which causes many to resort at being unsuccessful, and sometimes even to shun society to avoid the scrutinizing gaze of the observer and ridicule of their friends or acquaintances, during the continuance of their lives or a short, not even the loss of property like the generous thinking youth with their heavy sinking gloom up does the loss of a head. The Proprietor of Bogle's Hyperion Fluid commences, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application and for reasons it again. This unique preparation of flowers and vegetables prevents the hair from turning grey, causes it to grow beautifully, and frees it from dandruff. Numerous certificates of the first responsibility in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

For Sale by Agents.

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. Late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, seemingly for mere humbug, to the superior character of the following gentleman.

The undersigned do hereby certify, that we have used for the last of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it to fully surpass the most sanguine expectations of its proprietor, which is saying a great deal, for we were incredulous.

The 12 above gentlemen are persons in wearing wigs, many of them experience in decorative qualities, yet it will certainly rank as a witness to the extinction of the parties, when it is known to three of the above gentlemen are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

From the Mayor
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
City of Philadelphia.

I, ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor of the city of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs J P Bogle, J Thos S. Perry, & Hugh McCurdy, who names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of character and respectability and as such full credit should be given to the said certificate.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the city to be affixed.
