PENMANSHIP.

DOLBY, Practical and Ornamental, Taught at COLER & BROTHERS' Writing Academy No 8 Chartres street.—The extensive patronage which the method of Writing has received in various parts of the United States, and the increasing application for instructions in the science, as well as the practice of Writing, has induced them to establish permanently a branch in New York. New Orleans and Mobile; and it is their attention to afford greater facilities for the acquisition of Penmanship, than are afforded by any other institution in the country. Persons entering one of them has the privilege of attending at either of the others without extra charge. The Ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to call. Specimens of rapid improvement given by persons from 8 to 50 years of age, who have received lessons in this city may be seen at any hour of the day. Ladies are taught a delicate and rapid ornamental style also, various styles of ornamental writing, suited to Albume, Notes or Cotillions, &c. Gentlemen are taught a free and expeditious hand writing calculated to facilitate business transactions, by dispensing with the delay incident to deciphering the hieroglyphical scrawl of most persons of business, and imparting to the clerk a style at once rapid and elegant. Persons visiting the city for only a few days will receive special attention.

The number of Lessons is not limited, but every person who enters is desired to remain till he writes sufficiently well for any kind of business. This tells the interest of both teacher and pupil.

Ladies who prefer it can receive lessons at their own residences. Ornamental writing executed with elegance.

N. B. Dolbey's "Science of Penmanship" particularly designed for private learners and schools, and calculated for persons of all ages, imparting an ease and freedom not attained by any other method. Also, Dolbey's new copy book for female seminaries intended as a supplement to the science of Penmanship, for sale here.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the greatest ornament belonging to the human frame. However rare the instance of this charge in nature, and present only hinges on the principle of age, which causes many to recoil at being unmoved, and almost unaware to shun society to avoid the frosts and snows of premature old age, the roses and lilies of their lives are consequently spent in retirement. In short, not even the loss of property hills the gloomy shadow of death with a more heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To avert all this misfortune in time to prevent the loss of property hills the gloomy shadow of death with a more heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To avert all this misfortune in time, use CODRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application, and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning gray, makes it curl beautifully, and frees it from dandruff. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Codridge's Balm, are shown to the proprietor.

☞ Read the following:

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, among the following, to the high character of the following gentlemen.

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia procured at J. Oldridge, and have found it to be truly and peculiarly adapted to the purpose of preventing the falling off of hair, but also in certain restoration. WM. THACHER, Rector of
