New Orleans, Nov 14, 1837

ABOUT six months ago I had the misfortune to get a severe disease, for which I have applied to several Doctors for a cure, and they did not cure me, as now on the above date I put myself under the care of Dr. Hunt, and I expect him to cure me. Some that have had the disease got worse, so as to be bed ridden for a long time, to the number of six or eight on each leg, and all over my face, and sore throat, and not able to work in the presence of this disease, I have a very large ulcer on the right side of the throat. I am now getting myself confidently under the care of Dr. Hunt, of Paris, hoping to be perfectly cured by
