A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the grandestornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance and negatively brings on old age, even in youthful ages, which causes many to recoil at being uncovered, and sometimes even to shun society to avoid the jests and sneers of their companions; the remainder of their days are rendered miserable by reflection. In short, not even the loss of property fills the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To overt all these unpleasant circumstances, ODERIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application but a few bottles restores it again. It likewise prevents dryness and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning gray, makes it curl beautifully, and from it most active. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

☞ Read the following:

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen.

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preservative against the falling off of hair, but also in certain regrative.

The aged, and those who persist in wearing wigs, may not always experience the restorative qualities, yet it will certainly raise as witness in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

From the Mayor.
