A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the grandest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to feel a loathing abhorrence, and even to shun society to avoid the taunts and sneers of their acquaintance; the restoration of their lives are consequently spent in retrospection alone, just cause the loss of property is the most serious thinking youth with the hoary sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To ever all these unpleasant circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application, and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and frees it from dandruff. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

☞ Read the following:

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen.

"The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used with the Balm of Columbia imported by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preservative against the falling off of hair, but also a certain restorative,

The aged, and those who preside in wearing wigs, may not always experience its restorative qualities, yet it will certainly raise up vigour in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

From the Mayor,
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, }
City of Philadelphia. }

I, ROBERT WHARTON, mayor of said city of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs J. C. Inglis, John S. Perry, & Hugh McCurdy, whose names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of character and respectability and as such full credit should be given to the said certificate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the city to be affixed, [L. S.] this sixth day of December, 1836.
