Extract from "An Ordinance to prevent obstructions, and to secure the free and uninterrupted passage in the streets, squares and other public ways in the city of New Orleans," approved August 20th, 1816.

Art. 14. It shall not be lawful to expose at windows, balconies or other parts of houses, walls or fences, any flower pots or boxes, or any other thing projecting on the street or public way, whereby the passage may be incommoded or endangered; nor shall it be lawful either to throw in the day or during the night, from the windows, balconies or other parts of the house, water, urine, filth, or any other thing that may hurt, damage or annoy any person passing by; nor to cause to sale any horses, mules or any other cattle, and to exercise horses in the streets, on the roads, levees or other public ways; nor to ride or drive, or cause or suffer any carriage to be driven so as to scare horses, injure passengers or embarrass the passage of carriages; and every person herein offending, shall pay a fine of from two to five dollars for every such offence, and the parents, guardians, masters and mistresses shall be responsible respectively for their minor children, apprentices or slaves.

MAYORALTY OF NEW-ORLEANS. COUNCIL OF MUNICIPALITY NO. ONE.

Sitting of September 17, 1838.

RESOLVED, That the Mayor shall give notice during ten days, in the official Gazette, to all owners of grindstones and other materials whatsoever encumbering the triangular space situated between Conti, Bienville, Old and New Levee streets, to have them removed within the shortest possible delay.

Resolved, That, after a delay of ten days, the wharfinger be, and he is hereby authorized to cause to be removed from the above-mentioned spot, the grindstones and other materials whatsoever, at the expense of the owners, to be disposed of in the manner mentioned hereafter.

Resolved, That a fine of ten dollars shall be imposed for each contravention, upon any person depositing grindstones or other materials whatsoever, on spots designated, belonging to the first municipality; further, it is forbidden to all peddlers or retailers whatsoever to station thereon, under the penalty of being fined five dollars for each contravention, by the first person; and ten lashes at the police jail, if it be a slave, unless the owner of said slave should prefer paying said fine.

Be it further Resolved, That it shall be the special duty of the wharfinger to inspect every day the above-mentioned lot, and to cause to be removed therefrom, and deposited, at the expense of the owner, at such a place as may be designated by the mayor, all the materials whatsoever which he may find thereon, in case said materials should not be claimed by the owners within a delay of ten days after their removal, they shall be sold, under an order to be given in the Official Gazette, at public auction, for the account and risk of the owners, who, in all cases, shall be held to pay the amount of the fine above prescribed, together with all the costs of drayage and sale of the above-mentioned objects.

(Signed) PAUL BERTUS, recorder.

Approved, September 18, 1838.

(Signed) C. GENOIS, mayor.

A true copy. THEARD, jun., sec'y.

The aged, and those who present ill-wearing wigs, may not always experience its restorative qualities, yet it will certainly raise its virtues in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

From the Mayor.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, } City of Philadelphia, ss. }

A CARD.—The subscriber begs to express his grateful thanks to the public, for the very liberal support he has received since he commenced business in this city. Being sole proprietor of the seed store, Dumaine street, he is therefore better enabled for any northern seed vendor, neither to be connected with any house in this country; but he assures the public that his connections in every department of the seed business, in the different governments of Europe, are equal to that of any house in the United States. He imports seeds, plants, &c. from the most extensive and respectable nursery and seedmen in France, Holland, England, Scotland, and other northern states; and it will at all times be his study (as it is his interest) to import articles of the very best description: the daily expects to receive, in addition to his present stock, large arrivals, of every description of seeds really in growth of 1838; also, ingrafted fruit trees of all kinds. The public may rely on finding a full assortment of every article in the seed line, of genuine quality and imported direct by
