NEW-ORLEANS:

TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 30, 1838.

HALF PAST TWO O'CLOCK A. M.

The weekly Packet has just arrived, bringing us the intelligence from Texas, to the 16th inst. inclusive. The Packet is coming up, when she comes down there, having on board, the mother and children of Mrs. Kendall, who is now on a visit to Texas. Mrs. Kendall is the wife of the Texian Minister to the United States. Passengers in the Packet, Mr. Kendall, Lady and child, and Mr. Hemphill.

We are indebted to the politeness of capt. Roper, of the Packet, for the following slip from the Galveston Civilian, and also for the Telegraph and Texas Register of the 17th inst. which we shall receive by the next mail.

ANOTHER SHIPWRECK.

The brig Columbus, arrived yesterday from Matamoras, reports that the brig Ann, Capt. Hall, from Baltimore, bound to Matamoras, was totally lost on the Brazos Bar, on the night of the 13th inst. The vessel was owned by Messrs. Brown, Harris & Co. of Baltimore, and was consigned to Messrs. Dunbar & Sherwood of Matamoras. We have not learned the amount of insurance.

The Columbus also reports the loss of the schooner Mary Ann, Capt. Hall, from Baltimore, bound to Matamoras, on the night of the 13th inst. on the Brazos Bar. The vessel was owned by Messrs. Brown, Harris & Co. of Baltimore, and was consigned to Messrs. Dunbar & Sherwood of Matamoras. We have not learned the amount of insurance.

MELANCHOLY NEWS.

The editors of the Queen have announced a proceeding of a very melancholy nature, which has occurred in the course of the week, and which will excite the sympathy of the whole community. The circumstance to which we allude is the death of Mr. Wilson, a gentleman who has been employed in the office of the Queen for a number of years, and who has endeared himself to all who have had the pleasure of his acquaintance, by the amiability of his disposition, and the kindness of his heart. He was a native of Scotland, and has left a wife and family to mourn his loss. He was buried on Sunday last, and his funeral was attended by a large number of his friends and acquaintances.

THE CHOLERA IN PARIS.

The cholera appears to be increasing in Paris. The Journal des Debats of the 12th inst. says:—"The number of persons attacked with cholera, and who have died, is greater than it was yesterday. The number of deaths is 30 more than yesterday. The number of persons attacked with cholera is 100 more than yesterday. The number of persons who have died is 30 more than yesterday. The number of persons who have died is 30 more than yesterday."
