A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the grand ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to recoil at being uncovered, and sometimes even to shun society to avoid the ridicule and mirth of their acquaintance, the remainder of their lives are consequently passed in retirement. In short not even the loss of property fills the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To remedy the unpleasant circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application, and a few bottles as rendered it as thick as ever. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and frees it from dandruff. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

Read the following.

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following:

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly agreeable, and we fully authorize the public to say that it will prove a preventive against the falling off of hair, but also a certain restorative. WM. THATCHER, Sexton,

Methodist Minister in St. George Church,
No 92 South Fifth st.

John P. Inglis, 231 Arch street.
John D. Thomas, M. D. 163 Race st.
John S. Furey, 101 Spruce st.
Hugh McCardy, 213 South 2d st.
John Gird, Jr. 123 Arch st.

The agent, and those who present in wearing wigs, may not always experience the restorative qualities, yet it will certainly raise its virtues to the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above agents are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

From the Mayor.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, } City of Philadelphia. }

I, ROBERT WHARTON, mayor of said city of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs J. P. Inglis, John S. Furey, & Hugh McCardy, whose names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of character and respectability, and as such full credit should be given to the said certificate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the city to be affixed, [L. S.] this sixth day of December, &c.

ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor.

CAUTION.—Observe that each bottle of the genuine balm has a splendid engraved wrapper, on which is represented the Falls of Niagara, the agent's name, &c. &c.
