OF KENTUCKY,

Subject to the Decision of a National Convention,

DECLARE THEMSELVES FRANKLY AGAINST ANY ABOLITION as participating in a principle fatal to the Union of the States where it may be laid on opposition.

☞ The Independence of the Press.

In the Senate on Saturday, Mr. Preston introduced a resolution declaring that the Senate disapproved the conduct of the editor of the Globe in his late attack upon the Senate, and that he be required to appear at the bar of the Senate to answer for the same.

Mr. Norvell, of Michigan, was called to the bar of the Senate to answer for a publication in the Globe of the 18th inst. Mr. Norvell did not deny the publication, but stated that he was not the author of the article complained of, and that he had not seen it before it appeared in the Globe. He was not responsible for the publication, and could not be made so. He was not the editor of the Globe, and had no control over the paper.
