TERMS OF THE BEE.

Subscription.—Twelve Dollars for Daily per annum, payable annually in advance. Five Dollars for the tri-weekly—twenty paper—payable one year in advance, which is the only condition on which subscription will be considered. Any subscription will be discontinued until arrearages are settled. In case of discontinuance, one week's notice, in writing, must be invariably given, previous to the expiration of a subscription.

Advertising.—One dollar per square, for the first insertion, and half that price for each subsequent one; any material alteration from the original advertisement will be charged as a new one. TEN lines or less is a square.

Advertisements ordered to be published at intervals, will be charged one dollar per square, for each insertion.

Yearly Advertising.—Merchants and Traders, forty dollars per English alone and 60 for both languages; Banks, Insurance Offices, and other similar public institutions, fifty dollars for English only, and 100 for both languages. Ship and steam-boat Factors, or commission merchants, sixty dollars in English alone and 100 for both languages—payable yearly in advance.

The privilege of annual advertising is limited to one square in extent, and three changes per week.

Notices, and Observers.—Persons desirous of attracting the attention of the public to sales of property, cards of passengers, benefits, &c. &c. will be charged one dollar per square, for the first insertion in each language.

Communications or Advertisements of any personal nature, when admissible shall be charged double, and in advance.

Advertisements out of the direct line of business of the yearly advertisers, such as legal, auction, and plantation sales, runaway slaves, stray animals, &c. &c. will be charged for separately and at the ordinary rates.

Advertisements not specified as to time will be published one month, and charged accordingly.

No advertisements of bankruptcies will be published at any case, unless called for, or accompanied by or payment guaranteed by a responsible person in town.

Theatres and other places of amusement, advertising daily for the season, to be charged 100 dollars for English alone, and 150 dollars in both languages.

All announcements of merchandize for public sale are to be charged double the price of other advertisements.
