GREAT LOCOFOCO VICTORY. Some rabid Van Burenite threw a bricklat and nocked the head off the bust of Washington, which decorated the whig rostrum in Canal street. This is truly a locofoco triumph. It is right they should me-tilate the bust of the father of his country. The in-animate mat ble was a silent, though eloquent reproach for the miseries and disgrace they have entailed upor the people whose liberties he achieved.

A SIGN IN MISSOURI. Read the following, which we take from the St. Louis Republican of the 18th inst. Why, it would seen from the progress of opinion there, that there is tope even of Missouri going for the people's candi-hope even of Missouri going for the people's candidate:

A SION FROM PULLARI COUNTY.—A merchant handed us yesterially the names of two gentlemen in Pulsarki county, with directions to send the Republican to them, saying at the same time that it was a little strange they should send to him, as they well knew that he was a good democrat. The merchant informed us that he had a letter from one of the gentlementhat he knew him personally, and that he had been formerly a supporter of the administration, but he has changed. He says, in his letter, that the mass of the people are changing in his neighborhood, and that among his peosonal acquaintance, he knows of between serenty fire and one hundred changer—men who voted for Van Buren, but who now say spenly that they intend to vote for Harrison.

Pularki county was, at the last general electoin, one of the strongest Van Buren counties in the state.—The vote stood for Allen and Wilson, 46, for Harrison and Miller, 550. The vote attood for Atten and wiscon, no, for free son and Miller, 550.

worth of property. From the Baltimore Patriot. From the Baltimore Patriot.

Is IT A FORGERY?—MessEs Lynn Boyd, John Jameson, Hopkins L. Turney, Lewis Steenrod and Jesse A. Bynsun, locofoco members of congress, on Friday published in the Globe an address to their constituents, in the body of which they inserted a letter signed with the name of Win. B. Cathoun, (whig member of congress from Massachusetts,) in which Mr. Calhoun is medic to say that Gen'l Harrison was a member of an abolition society.

Mr. Calhoun immediately published a note in the National Intelligencer charging the said locofice members of congress with interpolating the words "abolition society;" and in the last Globe MessEs. Lynn Boyd, John Jamesun, and Hopkins L. Turney, acknowledge that they did interpolate the words in the letter, and admit that they are not in the original. Is this a forgery?

morning, Mr. Clifford, of Maine, offered a resolution, which was agreed to, ordering that the bill shall be taken out of committee in Monday next, and be considered in the house on the following day, and until finally disposed of. Once in the house, the precious question will be speedily applied, and the bill will be passed, and of course receive forthwith the signstare of the President.

If the resolution of Clifford had not been agreed to, the federal loco-focos would have adopted a more summary process. The following conversation, which actually occurred between two of them in the house on Thursday, shows the method to which they would have resorted:
