FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

To the Editors of the Whig:

Gentlemen—I have only time to say the election for governor and members of assembly has closed in this county, and all the returns are in. I am most hely to announce the result of the victory. The three whig members of the commons are returned, the whig sensator and the whig candidate for governor have a large majority. Below in the list of returns. The whigs of this county are extremely gratified at the result, and have no deabt of success in the state at large. You will see by the list there is a gain of one member in the house of commons. The democratic were certain of dividing the vote to the assembly equally, and I have never seen defeat have so signal an effect.

Both parties look on the result as decisive, as the election turned entirely on federal politics. No returns received here of any other election.

The Raleigh Register brings us the following

Milliamoron, (N. C.) Aug. 5.

Our State Elegorions.—The following counties voted on Thursday last: Hyde, Pitt, Washington, Brasfert, Edgecombe, Franklin, and Wayne and Grewitle on Friday. We have nothing from livide or Washington. We hear in general terms from livide or Washington. We hear in general terms from livide to the legislature, and given Morehead, the whig candidate for governor, large and increased majorities.—In Granville, the whige have gained a commoner, returning fall whig legislative tract—the gubernatorial vote not precisely known, but a whig majority. The vote in Edgecombe stands 1130 for Sanders (V. B.) to 111 for Morehead (W.) This is the same whig vote given in this county at the congressional election last fall, and a dissinution of the V. B. of 262. As compared with the gubernatorial vote of 1806, it is a whig gain of 36, and a Van Buren loss of 49. Franklin and Warren have both elected full Van Buren legislative teckets, and given Sannders (V. B.) majorities.

In Brooklyn the effects of the lightning were more serious. It struck the house of Mr. Jeremish Lambertson, mason, in Sanda street, near Bridge street, a partion of it followed the leaders down to the eistern and shivered the pump all to pieces; another portion pubably descended the chimney, followed the bell wires in every direction, injured the furniture, broke the windows, and apparently passed off at the street door.—Here a little boy was standing.
