INDIAN'S PANACEA

FOR the cure of scrofula or king's evil, inveterate cases of syphilis and mercurial diseases, particularly ulcers and painful affections of the bones, ulcerated throat and nostrils, ulcers of every description, the worst cases of rheumatism, chronic swellings of the joints, stiffness or contraction of the limbs, obstinate cutaneous diseases, chronic catarrh, particular cases, pain in the stomach and dis pepsia, proceeding from a torpid action, affections of the liver, chronic inflammation of the kidneys, general debility, and all cases of torpid action of the vessels of the skin. In assigning to each disease its appropriate remedy, the proprietor has not been broken down by injudicious treatment or pernicious practice. In general terms, it is recommended in all those cases where the impurities are in the blood, or vitiation is the humors, of whatever form or kind.

The proprietor of this valuable medicine acquired his knowledge of its properties during a long residence among the aborigines of this country, and in a selection from the most approved and successful medicines which they use.—It is offered to the public, by the proprietor, with the consciousness that he is placing within their reach a remedy capable of relieving many of his afflicted fellow-beings, who are suffering under the hidden or open attacks of those complaints to which it is applicable. To such it will prove the means, and in many cases the only means of relief, and their suffering, and rejoice with them over their restored health and happiness. This is not offered as a common remedy, that may purchance be equally good with many others now in use, but as a remedy of unfailing virtue in many diseases in which all others have proved ineffectual, and has been done repeatedly, and this is the reputation it has obtained wherever it has been introduced.

The following certificate, out of hundreds similar which might be produced, are given to show the effect of the Indian's Panacea, in the most inveterate cases of scrofula, and also to exhibit in the most satisfactory manner its superiority over other similar preparations:

Charleston, Jan 20, 1832.—This may certify, that I was afflicted with a scrofulous disease for several years, having had the king's evil in my throat, and was under the care of the Philadelphia and Charleston, and also four or several bottles of Swaim's Panacea, but all without permanent benefit.—During the last summer I was induced to try the Indian's Panacea, which soon became so severe as to prevent my taking out the bottle, which I continued to do for several months, when I found myself entirely cured. ANDREW COZINE, King st.
