Commercial.

NEW-ORLEANS, TUESDAY EVENING, }
May 11, 1841.

We have not little of interest to impart since our preceding review; but commerce in general having been rather dull.

The weather continues cool and pleasant, and highly favorable to out-door occupations. The river remains at the same stage last noticed.

COTTON.—Arrivals since the 7th inst of Louisiana at Mississippi, 3,000 bales—Tennessee and North Alabama, 2,000—Red River, 12; together, 6,032 bales; making the total receipts since the 1st of October, 725,346 bales, against 644,816 the season previous. Clearances since the same date for Liverpool, 10,213 bales—Havre, 3,000—Marseilles, 800—Nantz, 800—Bremen, 1,250—Havana, 60—New-York, 7,3—Boston, 81—Philadelphia, 100; together, 19,580 bales, making a reduction in stock of 13,827 bales; and leaving on hand, inclusive of all on shipboard not cleared this day, a stock of 89,160 bales, against 102,987 at the same time last year.

Prices on review of Friday evening last, a fair amount of business has been transacted in the Cotton market, and although no actual advance has been realized, prices are again very full. The sales on Saturday were 3,000 bales; yesterday, 2,000; and to-day 3,000; together, 8,000 bales. The principal part of these purchases were effected for the Liverpool and Havre markets and a small portion for the north, and have been generally confined to the middling descriptions. The finer grades continue very scarce, and command proportionately high rates. We notice the following particulars of the last three days' business:—1,087 bales Louisiana and Mississippi at 11c—35 at 11½—10 at 9¾—350 at 11½—112 at 11—200 at 9—1,200 at —; 117 at 11—10 at 9—; 200 at 10 13-16—100 at 10½ 82 at 10½—1100 at 10½—92 at 9½—44 at 11½—114 at 10½—114 at 9½; and 50 at 11½c.

TOBACCO.—The transactions in the Tobacco market during the past week have been of the most limited nature, barely amounting to 100 hhds, for which previous rates have been fully realized. Buyers have simultaneously taken a stand, and appear determined not to pay the enhanced rates hitherto current, whilst holders are not inclined to abate their pretensions. In the mean time the stock on sale continues accumulating, and cannot fall short of 6,000 hhds within the present month. The latest intelligence from Green River reports a similar state of dullness, a large quantities lacked up there to send to market. Green River, will be able to reach this market in season, the highest inquiry which prevails at present, is chiefly confined to selections of X and Seconds.—We notice the following sales—50 hhds of which, 9 Seconds at 7½—19 X at 9c; and 13 X at 9½c—23 hhds Selections at 6@7, 8 and 10 for X, Seconds at 7½, and 47 hhds at 4½, 7½@8, 9 and 9½c.

Arrivals since the 7th instant, 691 hhds; cleared in the same time, for Liverpool, 292 hhds—Havre, 84—Nantz, 13—Dunkirk, 24—Bilboa, 100—New-York, 180—Boston, 18—Philadelphia, 171—total, 1,027 hhds.

SUGAR.—Although we cannot notice much animation in the market, the demand continues steady, and the daily sales show our last quotations to be fully supported, and have been principally effected for consumption in the north (using still unwilling to operate to any extent. We quote common grades at 4½@5c. We are not informed of any transactions on plantation.

MOLASSES.—There is a good inquiry for this article, and prices are firmly realized at 30c. We have not heard of any sales on plantation.

FLOUR.—An overall fullness in the receipts, together with a decline of an advance in the Cincinnati market, have imparted a considerable dullness to our flour market during the past few days, and we are now asking $4 25@$4 37½ for fancy brands. We quote extra at $4 12½@$4 25.

PORK.—We have no alteration to notice in this article, the demand being extremely limited at our quotations. Prime and Mess Pork we quote at $15@$15 50, and Prime Mess at $16@$16 50.—Baltimore Prime, $14@$15 50.—Boston Prime, $14 50@$15 50.—New-York, 60 do, 6 @ cent. premium.—Cincinnati, 60 days @ 6 cent. prem.

BAGGING AND ROPE.—We notice a fair demand for Kentucky Bagging, at 27½@28c, at which prices we quote generally. Other descriptions are unchanged. We quote—Hemp, 12@13c—Kentucky Rope, 9½@10c—Spun Rope, 10@11c.

WHISKEY.—We quote rectified at 18@18c, at which prices there is a fair extent to be done. Common country is dull, and can command 16@17c.

COFFEE.—A very moderate demand continues to prevail for both Havana and Rio, of which the stock is large. We quote Havana and Rio, at 8@8½—inferior quality, 7½@8—Laguira, 8—Maracaibo, 8½@9.

CANDLES.—The market is very flat at our last quotations of 6½c for New Sperm, and 6½c for Nantucket.

SOAPS.—We notice a limited demand at previous rates. Yellow is retailing at 5½@6—Mottled, 6½@7—Castile, 11@12½—Brown, 3½@4—Palm, 6½@7—Fancy, 8@10—New-York, 60 do, 6 @ cent. premium—Boston, 4 months, 6 @ 6½ cent. prem.

EXCHANGE.—The business in this department since our last issue has been to a very moderate extent, and has been chiefly confined to Foreign Exchange, at our last quotations. Sterling is still 9½@9¾ per cent. prem. Francs 5.17½@5.16—New-York, 60 do, 6 @ cent. prem.—Boston, 4 months, 6 @ 6½ cent. prem.

FREIGHTS.—We have no alteration to notice;—Cotton to Liverpool 7-16d.—to Havre, ½—Cotton, very dull at quotations.

PRESIDENT TYLER AND VIRGINIA.

We notice that some shallow pated letter writers from Washington assert very gravely that President TYLER is exercising legally anxious on the subject of the Virginia elections—that he will not dare to affix his signature to a bill incorporating a National Bank, unless the Old Dominion adhere to him; that, in brief, he will shape his course and direct his principles by the due, uncertain and capricious standard of Virginia transcendentalism. These silly correspondents must have certainly borrowed their notions of President TYLER's lack of political firmness, from the lucubrations of the Richmond Enquirer. That is the only journal, as far as we have seen, that obscurely hints at Mr. TYLER's reluctance to offend the puissant mistress of Virginia locofocoism, and labors to persuade its readers that he dare not move an inch without the sanction of his native state. The alternate application of threats and "soft sawder" is a favorite system of Mr. RITCHIE; he tried it upon WM. C. RIVES, when that gentleman showed signs of recalcitration. It was ineffectual, however, and the tenant was ultimately abandoned to his fate. With a most desperate and hopeless effort, the Enquirer now tries its round of political tactics upon JOHN TYLER. It seems to strive with laudable zeal, to inspire the Executive with the idea that locofocism is Virginia principles, and that Virginia is the Union.

Those who understand Father RITCHIE best, have a better opinion of his sagacity than to believe that he really thinks Mr. TYLER to be wood or whipped into the locofoco ranks. We cannot so far disparage the veteran journalist's astuteness as to give him credit for sincerity in the attempt. It is done purely for effect. He has no idea of winning over the President, but he wants the people to notice his apparent moderation, the tempered seal with which he argues, and the seeming impartiality with which he judges Mr. TYLER. But these correspondents who have taken their cue from the columns of the Enquirer and have construed Mr. RITCHIE's political manœuvreing into the absolute signs and portents of the hour, have exhibited no inconsiderable degree of ignorance, and are sadly entitled to be placed in the same category with the learned DOGBERRY.

What! intimidate JOHN TYLER! Cajole or terrify him into the phalanx of loco-focoism! Induce him, with Calhoun like constancy, to rush to the embraces of his bitterest foes, and to take by the hand a party which he knows and feels to be corrupt! Absurd!—They forget his history—they have no remembrance of the indomitable decision of character he has always exhibited—they have never read his letter when instructed to vote for the expunging resolutions, nor the keen sarcasm of his Henrico epistle, last summer.—They are, perhaps, not aware that Mr. TYLER is a WHIG, and glories in the name and principles—that he has been reviled and persecuted by loco-focos—even as all who have had honesty enough to forsake the false doctrine are reviled and persecuted. Is it possible that even should Mr. TYLER by any chance lean towards radicalism, he would take counsel of Virginia—of his native State, which abandoned him without selecting another, which sustained Van Buren to the last hour of its existence, and opposed him with frantic zeal? Pshaw! The idea is too absurd to merit a moment's consideration.

If there are whigs timid or thoughtless enough to believe the insane predictions of the Enquirer, and other papers of that kidney, the triumph in Virginia will dispel their fear. If it be a satisfaction to be sustained by Virginia, Mr. TYLER enjoys it. She has just pronounced her verdict in his favor. We much question if he is one whit more grateful to her for her tardy support, than he would have been had she clung to the fallen fortunes of loco-focoism with the tenacity of New Hampshire or Missouri. His principles are too well founded to be affected by the incidental approval or censure of the Old Dominion.

☞ Through an error of the press in an article on THOMAS P. MARSHALL on Monday last, Sir father, Dr. LEWIS MARSHALL was spoken of, as the "late" Dr. MARSHALL. We are happy to state that Dr. M. is living and likely to live for many years to come.

We are indebted to friend CURRIE, faithfull-et of bibliopolists, for copies of Mrs. MANN's reprints of the March numbers of Blackwood, Bentley, and the Metropolitan. They are rich in amusement and instruction.

OFFICIAL.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT.

J. F. Cox, Henry Naylor, Nathan Lufborough, Joshua Pierce, Lewis Carberry, John Cox, and Robert White, to be members of the Levy Court for the County of Washington, in the District of Columbia.

☞ Some of the negroes in the Parish of Ascension attempted a few nights since to escape by cutting a hole in the door. A negro in an adjacent cell awoke and gave the alarm, when the jailor appeared and secured them.

HORRIBLE ATTEMPT AT MURDER.—We learn from the Donaldson Advocate of the 6th, that on the day previous a Mr. SIMON RICHARD being in the woods, in the rear of his father's plantation, he saw and attempted to arrest a runaway negro. The fellow followed him out of the wood, and then turned upon and stabbed him in the side. Mr. RICHARD attempted to seize the knife, but received another wound in the neck. A struggle ensued, in which Mr. R. was again twice wounded, when exhausted he fell and called for help. His brother came up and apprehended the slave. Mr. RICHARD lies without hope of recovery.

STEAMBOAT ACCIDENT.—The steamboat Commodore, in passing over the falls, on her downward trip from Cincinnati, broke off her fore foot, and shivered several planks under the forward hatch. She was taken into Portland dry-dock, where she was quickly repaired, and again proceeded on her voyage.

KENTUCKY ELECTION.—Messrs. MARSHALL, DAVIS, ANDREWS, SPEED, WHITE, THOMPSON, GREEN, UNDERWOOD, TRIPLETT, and WILLIAMS, all Whigs; and Messrs. BUTLER and BOYD, locofocos, are elected to Congress. One district to be heard from, which will doubtless be returned a Whig. The delegation will stand as before, viz—11 Whigs—2 Locofocos.

FLORIDA ELECTION.—The election of a delegate took place on the 5th inst. There were three candidates, WARD and DOWNING (whigs,) and LEVY (l. f.) In the county in which Pensacola is situated, the vote stood, Ward 147, Levy 44, Downing 60. In Walton, Ward has 100 majority.

ANOTHER VETO.—Gov. POPE has vetoed the Roanoke Bank Bill. When the bill was returned to the senate, it again passed that body by the constitutional majority: 17 to 6. Its fate in the House was doubtful.

THE RIVER at Cincinnati had risen 6 inches on the 6th and was then at a stand.
