Commercial.

NEW-ORLEANS, MONDAY MORNING, ... 20, 1840

By to-day's mail we received accounts from England to the 4th instant. The anticipations of the Cunard steamship to arrive at Halifax on the 28th instant, with the news by the Great Western, were fully realized. The Caledonia arrived at Liverpool on the 2nd instant, and brought the intelligence of the capture of Beyrout by the combined fleets of England, Austria and Turkey, on the 11th ult. The Great Western reached Bristol on the 3d instant, and brought London papers to the 4th. The Caledonia left Liverpool on the 3d, and brought Liverpool papers to the 4th. The Great Western left Bristol on the 4th, and brought London papers to the 5th. The Great Western left New-York on the 23d ult., and the Caledonia left Boston on the 26th ult. The Great Western arrived at Bristol on the 3d instant, and the Caledonia arrived at Liverpool on the 2nd instant. The Great Western left Bristol on the 4th instant, and the Caledonia left Liverpool on the 3d instant. The Great Western arrived at New-York on the 23d ult., and the Caledonia arrived at Boston on the 26th ult