HENRY JOHNSON.

NEW-ORLEANS
WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 1, 1901.

THE UNITED STATES AND GREAT BRITAIN.

The conflict between the two nations has been so long and so bitter, that it has become a matter of course to expect a new outbreak of hostilities at any moment. It is not surprising, therefore, that the public mind is so much interested in the latest news from London and Paris. The late war between the two nations was a most interesting one, and it is not surprising that the public mind is so much interested in the latest news from London and Paris.

RECORDED COURT - IN MUNICIPALITY.

Adolphus Bryant and Wm. Knott were brought before Recorder Bartes on the charge of slave trading.

The prisoners were arrested at the instance of James Digby, who in an affidavit sworn to by him before Recorder Bartes, alleged that the accused were engaged in the business of buying and selling slaves in the city of New Orleans. The prisoners were taken to the city hall, where they were held in custody until they could be brought before Recorder Bartes.

LOOPOCOISM DISPLAYED.

Our readers will recollect the unceremonious removal of Gen. Bryant from the office of Recorder of the city of New Orleans. The removal was a most surprising one, and it is not surprising that the public mind is so much interested in the latest news from London and Paris.
